

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Sierra Leone and Impunity	1
1.2	The Existing Profile	2
1.3	Conclusion	3
1.4	Summary	3
	References	4
2	Sources of International Law	5
2.1	Introduction	5
2.2	Custom	6
2.3	General Principles of Law Common to All Civilized Nations	8
2.4	Judicial Decisions	9
2.5	Writings of Publicists	10
2.6	Treaties or International Conventions	10
2.7	Conclusion	11
2.8	Summary	12
	References	13
3	Relationship Between International Law and Municipal Law: History, Theories, Status, and Related Aspects	15
3.1	Historical Insights	15
3.2	Theories	17
3.3	The Status of Municipal Law in International Law	18
3.4	The Status of International Law in Municipal Law	19
3.5	Justiciability, State Immunity, and Kindred Doctrines: The Applicable Sierra Leone Law	21
3.6	Conclusion	25
3.7	Summary	26
	References	27

4	Justice in Sierra Leone: Principal Agencies	29
4.1	The Ordinary Courts	30
4.1.1	Criminal Jurisdiction: Brief History	30
4.1.2	Criminal Jurisdiction: Existing Organization and Structure	30
4.1.3	Civil Jurisdiction: Existing Organization and Structure	38
4.2	The Military Courts	41
4.2.1	Courts Martial	41
4.2.2	Court of Appeal	41
4.3	The Police	42
4.4	The Office of the Attorney-General and Minister of Justice	44
4.5	The Legal Profession: The Private Practising Bar	46
4.6	The Prison System	47
4.7	Administration of Justice in Sierra Leone: A Critique	48
4.8	Conclusion	49
4.9	Summary	50
	References	51
5	Justice in Sierra Leone: Subsidiary Agencies	53
5.1	Sierra Leone Legal System: Subsidiary Components	53
5.1.1	The Ombudsman Office	53
5.1.2	The Human Rights Commission of Sierra Leone	55
5.1.3	The Sierra Leone Law Reform Commission	57
5.1.4	The Anti-Corruption Commission	59
5.1.5	The Sierra Leone Truth and Reconciliation Commission	60
5.1.6	The Justice Sector Coordination Office	61
5.2	Conclusion	61
5.3	Summary	62
	References	63
6	Jurisdiction: Nature, Scope, Dimensions, and Complexities	65
6.1	Meaning of Jurisdiction	66
6.2	Domestic Jurisdiction	66
6.2.1	Classification of Domestic Jurisdiction	66
6.3	Universal Jurisdiction Elaborated	70
6.3.1	Rationale, Scope, and Dimensions	70
6.3.2	Complexities	72
6.4	Conclusion	73
6.5	Summary	73
	References	74
7	Universal Criminal Jurisdiction: Law and Practice in Sierra Leone	75
7.1	Propositions of Law	75
7.1.1	General Propositions	76
7.1.2	Specific Propositions: War Crimes	77

7.1.3	Specific Propositions: Crimes Against Humanity	78
7.2	Conclusion	79
7.3	Summary	79
	References	80
8	Universal Civil Jurisdiction: Law and Practice in Sierra Leone	81
8.1	Universal Jurisdiction.	81
8.1.1	Preliminary Observations.	81
8.1.2	Propositions	82
8.2	Conclusion	84
8.3	Summary	84
	References	84
9	Universal Jurisdiction: The Sierra Leone Profile—Problematic Features	85
9.1	Preliminary Observation	85
9.1.1	Definitional Problems.	86
9.2	Conceptual Problems	90
9.2.1	Principles of Criminal Liability	90
9.2.2	Defences.	91
9.2.3	Insanity.	98
9.3	Institutional Problems	104
9.3.1	Political Control	105
9.3.2	Amnesties.	105
9.3.3	Extradition and Mutual Legal Assistance	107
9.4	Other Institutional Defects.	117
9.5	Conclusion	117
9.6	Summary	118
	References	119
10	Universal Jurisdiction in Sierra Leone: Reform of the Law	121
10.1	Conceptualizing Law Reform	121
10.2	The Machinery for Law Reform in Sierra Leone.	122
10.3	Proposed Agenda for Reform.	123
10.4	Specific Reform Proposals.	123
10.5	Conclusion	125
10.6	Summary	125
	References	126
	Table of Cases Cited	127
	Table of Statutes of International Courts and Other International Legal Instruments	129

Table of Legislation 133

Bibliography 135

Index 137

<http://www.springer.com/978-94-6265-053-4>

Universal Jurisdiction: The Sierra Leone Profile

Bankole Thompson, R.J.

2015, XX, 141 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-94-6265-053-4

A product of T.M.C. Asser Press