

Contents

1	Inventing Youth Wellbeing	1
	Julie McLeod and Katie Wright
2	To Be Well Is to Be Not Unwell: The New Battleground Inside Our Children’s Heads	11
	Linda J. Graham
3	Vulnerability and Wellbeing in Educational Settings: The Implications of a Therapeutic Approach to Social Justice	35
	Kathryn Ecclestone
4	The Limits of Wellbeing	55
	Johanna Wyn, Hernan Cuervo, and Evelina Landstedt
5	Constructions of Young Women’s Health and Wellbeing in Neoliberal Times: A Case Study of the HPV Vaccination Program in Australia	71
	Kellie Burns and Cristyn Davies
6	Young People, Sexual Pleasure and Sexual Health Services: What Happens When “Good Sex” Is Bad for Your Health?	91
	Ester McGeeney
7	“I’d Just Cut Myself to Kill the Pain”: Seeing Sense in Young Women’s Self-Injury	109
	Kathryn Daley
8	Rethinking Role-Play for Health and Wellbeing: Creating a Pedagogy of Possibility	127
	Helen Cahill
9	Wellbeing and Schools: Exploring the Normative Dimensions	143
	Amy Chapman

10 Social-emotional Learning: Promotion of Youth Wellbeing in Singapore Schools	161
Wan Har Chong and Boon Ooi Lee
11 Happiness, Wellbeing and Self-Esteem: Public Feelings and Educational Projects	179
Julie McLeod
12 From Targeted Interventions to Universal Approaches: Historicizing Wellbeing	197
Katie Wright
Index	219

Rethinking Youth Wellbeing

Critical Perspectives

Wright, K.; McLeod, J. (Eds.)

2015, XI, 222 p. 2 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-287-187-9