

Contents

More Playful User Interfaces: An Introduction	1
Anton Nijholt
 Part I Designing Interactions for and by Children
Hybrid Games: Designing Tangible Interfaces for Very Young Children and Children with Special Needs	17
Eva Cerezo, Javier Marco and Sandra Baldassarri
The Power to Play When There is No Power	49
Yoram Chisik, Monchu Chen and Jesus Ibanez
Responsive Make and Play: Youth Making Physically and Digitally Interactive and Wearable Game Controllers	71
Gabriela T. Richard and Yasmin B. Kafai
 Part II Designing Interactions with Nature, Animals, and Things
Human—Computer—Biosphere Interaction: Toward a Sustainable Society.	97
Hill Hiroki Kobayashi
Envisioning Future Playful Interactive Environments for Animals	121
Patricia Pons, Javier Jaen and Alejandro Catala
Playful and Gameful Design for the Internet of Things	151
Paul Coulton

Part III Designing Interactions for Arts, Performances, and Sports

Smart Materials: When Art Meets Technology	177
Andrea Minuto and Fabio Pittarello

MindMusic: Playful and Social Installations at the Interface Between Music and the Brain	197
Tim Mullen, Alexander Khalil, Tomas Ward, John Iversen, Grace Leslie, Richard Warp, Matt Whitman, Victor Minces, Aaron McCoy, Alejandro Ojeda, Nima Bigdely-Shamlo, Mike Chi and David Rosenboom

Enhancing Remote Spectators' Experience During Live Sports Broadcasts with Second Screen Applications.	231
Pedro Centieiro, Teresa Romão and A. Eduardo Dias

More Playful User Interfaces

Interfaces that Invite Social and Physical Interaction

Nijholt, A. (Ed.)

2015, X, 261 p. 112 illus., 106 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-287-545-7