Contents

1 Theory and Methodology—Killers that Evaluate and Act Depending on Context 1
Legitimacy and Homicide 5
References 11

2 Characteristics of Homicides in SP 13
Concentration by Territory and Population Group 16
The Context of Concentrated Disadvantages 20
References 24

3 The Beginning of the Increase in Homicides 27
Death Squads and the Morality of Executions 34
References 42

4 Homicidal Military Police 45
Justifications of Killer Police 50
References 64

5 Vigilantes—Homicides and Neighborhood Control 67
The Context and Career of Vigilantes 73
The End of Vigilantism and the Expansion of Criminal Activity 85
References 89

6 The Multiplier Effect of Homicides 91
References 94

7 Interpersonal Homicides Among Youths in Poor Neighborhoods 97
Aggressors 101
References 104

8 The Structure of Crime in São Paulo 107
References 111

9 Firearms and the Intent to Kill 113
Means and Methods for Carrying Out Homicides 114
References 116

10 Moral Cynicism and Vicious Circles 117
Cycles of Revenge and the First Homicide as a Turning Point in Personal Trajectories 124
References 140

11 Crack, Chaos, and Massacres 143
References 149

12 The Reduction in Homicides 151
Re-signification of Homicide Among Men and Youths in Violent Neighborhoods 154
References 159

13 Public Policies and Informal Controls Within Prisons 161
References 169

14 The Primeiro Comando da Capital as the Outcome of Disorder and Mass Incarceration 171
References 178

Conclusion 181

Index 185

http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-13164-1

Homicide in São Paulo
An Examination of Trends from 1960-2010
Manso, B.P.
2016, XVI, 189 p. 21 illus. in color., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-13164-1