Preface

This book is a mere reflection of the graces and blessings I have received from my teachers, mentors, and those involved in my formation.

I wish to acknowledge the sage teachers who enriched my ability to provide ethical and up-to-date care of my patients.

John Lachman taught me the ethics of patient care like no other. Ray Moyer was the greatest exemplar of integrity and loving patient care I have ever known. Joseph Torg is perhaps the wisest counselor on matters of life and orthopedics on earth.

Steven Burkhart taught me how to view a shoulder in mechanical terms, while Felix “Buddy” Savoie continues to instruct me in the most revolutionary shoulder arthroscopic techniques.

I have had the “gift” of a tried and true friend and colleague, Brian Sennett, who has been a continual supportive force in my career, in addition to a superlative source of shoulder knowledge.

My chairman, L. Scott Levin, has supported my academic endeavors without question and has proven time and time again that leadership is all about “walking the talk.”

Finally, I wish to acknowledge my editor, Jenn Schneider, who demonstrated the “patience of Job” in seeing this work to completion.
