

---

Contents

Part I Big Business: Climb to Sustainability?

1	Brave New World—Sustainable Mega Value Trends	3
1.1	The Four Drivers of Sustainable Value Creation	3
1.2	Serve Massive Pent-up Demand at the Base of the Pyramid	5
1.3	Leverage LOHAS, a Pioneer Segment at the Top	8
1.4	Boost Total Resource Productivity	10
1.5	Unleash a Triple-E Revolution on the Welfare State	14
	References	16
2	To Solve Problems, Take a Fresh View at Opportunity	21
2.1	Bye-Bye, CSR	21
2.2	Play at a Higher Standard, but Compete	23
2.3	Translate Opportunity into Business Transformation	25
	References	27
3	New Pathways to Results: Corporate Impact Venturing	29
3.1	Fuse Economic and Socio-Environmental Performance	29
3.2	Graduate from VC to CIV	31
3.3	Move Impact Ambitions from Niche to Scale	33
3.4	Build a Program for Business Transformation	35
	References	38

Part II Fashion: Upgrade Supply Chains Versus Dress to Kill

4	Fix Textile and Garment Supply Chains	43
4.1	Value or Disaster: What's It Going to Be?	43
4.2	Global Fashion: New Buyers, New Producers	50
4.3	Social and Environmental Issues We Need to Solve	53
	References	56

5	Changing Consumption and Production Patterns . . . . .	61
5.1	Two Tribes: Fast Fashion Versus Virtuous Consumers . . . . .	61
5.2	Transparency: Breathing Down the Supply Chain's Neck. . . . .	62
5.3	Unlock the Hidden Treasures of Resource Productivity . . . . .	65
	References. . . . .	67
6	Pull the Key Levers . . . . .	69
6.1	Foster Total Resource Productivity and Transparency . . . . .	69
6.2	Invest to Upgrade Industry Infrastructure . . . . .	70
6.3	Have a Fresh Go at Improving Working Conditions . . . . .	73
6.4	Learn from Leading Players . . . . .	76
	References. . . . .	78
7	How to Chart a Path for Supply Chain Transformation . . . . .	81
7.1	The Future Can Be Dynamic and Positive . . . . .	81
7.2	How to Design Complementary Models that Can Scale . . . . .	84
7.3	Take up Fashion's Ambition Level by More Than a Notch . . . . .	86
	References. . . . .	87
 Part III Fixing Energy, the Mother of All Markets
8	No Disruption, No Exponential Progress . . . . .	91
8.1	Solex Needed: We Cannot Afford to Get Energy Wrong . . . . .	91
8.2	Be Aware You Are Dealing with a Political Animal . . . . .	93
8.3	Generation, Storage, Transmission: Invent to Disrupt. . . . .	94
8.4	LENR et alia: Let a Thousand Flowers Bloom . . . . .	95
8.5	It's the Infrastructure, Stupid . . . . .	96
	References. . . . .	97
9	Technologies for the No Subsidy Imperative . . . . .	101
9.1	Solar PV: Efficiency Revolution, Now . . . . .	101
9.2	Get "Big Wind 2.0" Blowing . . . . .	102
9.3	Linear Progress Ain't Good Enough: What's Up with Storage? . . . . .	105
	References. . . . .	106
10	Rebreed Field Mice into 800-Pound Gorillas . . . . .	109
10.1	Renewables: Take off from an Underwhelming Baseline . . . . .	109
10.2	Build Innovations' Pathway to Market. . . . .	111
10.3	Let Governments Enable Breakthrough . . . . .	112
10.4	Move from Patchwork to Transition . . . . .	114
	References. . . . .	115

11	Seven Game Changers for Our Energy Future	117
11.1	Take Storage from Linear to Algorithmic Progress	117
11.2	Invest to Take Solar to the Next Level	119
11.3	Not Sexy, but Easy: Run with Energy Efficiency	121
11.4	Take E-Mobility beyond Entertainment	122
11.5	Carefully Pick Winners in the Infrastructure Buildup	123
11.6	Digital Is Yin—Hardware Is Yang	124
11.7	Keep “Out-of-the-Box” Thinkers on the Radar	125
	References	126
12	Time to Aim High—Use Our Talents and Instruments	129
12.1	A Tale of Two Programs: Climate KIC and ARPA-E	129
12.2	The How-to Formula Links Capital, Talent—and Daring	131
12.3	Cut Through Energy’s Gordian Knot	133
	References	134
Part IV Capital Markets, Time to Graduate from the Casino
13	Bringing the Power of Financial Innovation to Bear	139
13.1	Matrix Reloaded	139
13.2	Fresh Investment Content Wanted	145
13.3	Turn Impact Investing into the Solution It Could Be	147
	References	150
14	Financing Our Adjustment to Megatrends	155
14.1	Finance Progress at the “Base of the Pyramid”	155
14.2	Invest in Total Resource Productivity	157
14.3	Finance the Modernization of the Welfare State	158
14.4	Invest in Virtuous Consumer Innovation	161
	References	162
15	When Governments Stimulate Supply and Demand	167
15.1	Supply, Direct, Demand: Three Market Policy Levers	167
15.2	Use Structures and the Toolbox	169
15.3	Overcome the Barriers via Incentives	169
15.4	Ask Regulators to Enable	171
	References	173
16	Growing the Ecosystem of Impact Investment	175
16.1	Close the Gap	175
16.2	Use Philanthropic Sector Builders’ Advantage	176
16.3	Let Angel and Early Stage Investors Generate Deal Flow	176
16.4	Woo Professional Investors, the Scale Enablers	178
16.5	Go Mainstream via Institutional Investors	178

---

16.6	Leverage DFIs for Emerging Market Impact Investing. . . . .	180
16.7	Financial Services Drive Intermediation and Wholesaling. . . . .	181
16.8	Banks and Crowdfunding: Kickoff Is When? . . . . .	182
	References. . . . .	183
17	Toward a Post-casino Paradigm . . . . .	187
17.1	Vote that Proxy . . . . .	187
17.2	Drive Impact Where the Action Is. . . . .	189
17.3	Invest for Impact in the Internet of Things. . . . .	193
17.4	To Get to Impact Investing 2.0, Favor “Impact Light”. . . . .	197
	References. . . . .	200
	Epilogue: Let’s Do It! . . . . .	205

Building the Impact Economy

Our Future, Yea or Nay

Martin, M.

2016, XLVIII, 210 p. 10 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-25602-3