

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	References	10
2	Opening up a World of Literature at Toshiba	11
	Introduction	12
	Background and Definitions	13
	Work, Identity and Reflection	16
	Voice	20
	The Value of the Humanities	27
	Phronêsis or Practical Wisdom	28
	Conclusion	31
	References	31
3	The Quest for Leadership at Wembley Stadium	35
	Introduction	35
	“The Graduate”	37
	Background	40
	Leadership at Wembley	41
	Leadership and Ethics	43
	Leadership and Creativity	49
	Stories and Public Voices	50
	Power	52
	Antonio Gramsci	53
	Conclusion	54
	References	55
4	Halifax: The Cornerstone of Learning	57
	Introduction	58
	Background and Context	59
	Literature and Liberty	60
	The Actual Materials	62
	The Business Plan—A Two-Way Street	65

Babbitt Saves Banking: A Discussion on Literature	69
Ethics and Trust	73
Alan Sillitoe's Saturday Night, Sunday Morning and Niall Ferguson's The House of Rothschild: Money's Prophets 1789–1848	76
The Reflective Piece: An Opportunity to Tell One's Story, Albeit Briefly	78
References	81
5 Sofra Restaurant Group: The Untold Stories	83
Introduction and Context	83
The Success of Telling Stories.	86
Appreciating Stories.	89
Motivation and Interest.	93
Wisdom	94
References	97
6 Developing Criticality Through Reading Novels.	99
Introduction	100
The Value of Participation	101
Babbitt : New Ways to See the World.	104
The Loneliness of the Lecturer— Stoner	108
My Life as a Dog: Old Yeller	109
The Value of Literature	112
Concluding Remarks: Silver Wings into the Heavens and Full Mast into the Wind	115
References	117

Improving Workplace Learning by Teaching Literature

Towards Wisdom

Eastman, C.A.

2016, VIII, 117 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-29026-3