

Contents

1	Martin Luther King Jr.—Identity Is Key	1
	The King Family	3
	Marriage and Children	4
	Academic and Other Significant Milestones	6
	Personal and Professional Struggles	9
	References	13
2	Educated in a Segregated System	15
	Brown v. Board of Education 1954	18
	A Case for Separate Schools—Separate and Equal	21
	Segregation in the UK?	26
	A Paradigm of Change	27
	References	30
3	The Impact of Faith and Religion on Education	33
	Government and Political Influences on Faith Schools	35
	Politics Endorsing Discrimination	36
	Faith Based Education in the UK	37
	Faith Based Education—Inclusion or Exclusion?	39
	Socio-economic Impact on Faith Based Education	41
	Faith Schools, a Facade for Elitism?	43
	Faith, Culture and Its Influence on Fair Access to Education	46
	Education Post-Civil Rights and the Importance of Faith in the USA	48
	References	51
4	Effective Use of Education to Challenge Discrimination and Social Injustice	53
	Perpetuating Barriers to Engagement	55
	Financial and Economic Barriers to Success	56
	Subtle Segregation	57
	A Subtle Case	60
	Racism in Education; a Barrier to Social Justice	61

The Prevailing Impact of Discrimination in Education 50 Years After King's Assassination	63
A Little Late	65
References	65
5 An Exploration of Whether Prison Education and Employment Skills Impact on Reducing Re-offending.	67
Related Prison Statistics	69
Emerging Issues of Discrimination	71
Education, a Catalyst for Opportunity and Hope	73
Reducing Re-offending: Lack of Employment Opportunities for Black Men in the UK.	74
Recommendations	76
IECR Framework.	77
References	78
6 Now Is the Time for Change.	81
Will King's Dream Become a Reality?	82
An Environment in Which to Learn and Grow	84
Multicultural Education—A Diverse Curriculum	87
Now is the Time	91
References	92

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-39233-2>

Martin Luther King

"Now is the time" - His Dream to Influence Education
Today

Herbert, A.

2016, XI, 94 p. 1 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-39233-2