

Contents

1	Historical Setting of Borobudur	1
1.1	Introduction: Borobudur	1
1.2	Geographical Features of Borobudur and the Kedu Plains.....	2
1.3	Discovery of the Borobudur Temple and Scientific Research	3
1.4	First and Second Restoration Works of the Borobudur Temple in the Twentieth Century.....	4
1.5	UNESCO International Campaign for the Safeguarding of Borobudur.....	5
1.6	UNESCO Consultative Committee for the Safeguarding Borobudur Project and the Cultural Landscape Preservation Approach.....	7
1.7	Chihara's Initiative for the Landscape Protection at Borobudur.....	8
1.8	Outstanding Universal Value of Borobudur.....	9
1.9	Conclusion: Buddhist Heritage in a Predominantly Islamic Region	10
	References.....	11
2	Concept of Landscape Management at Borobudur in the 1970s.....	13
2.1	Introduction.....	13
2.2	European and Asian Approaches to Heritage and Cultural Landscape.....	14
2.3	Heritage Discourse in Japan for the Protection of Cultural Properties, Natural Monuments, and Cultural Landscape.....	17
2.4	Context of Javanese Cultural landscape.....	20
2.5	Management Concept of Landscape Protection in the JICA Master Plan.....	22
2.5.1	The Regional Master Plan Study (1973–1974).....	22
2.5.2	Project Feasibility Study (1975–1976)	24
2.5.3	JICA Master Plan (1978–1979)	32

2.6	Evolution of the Zoning Concept and Geographical Scope from 1974 Regional Study, 1976 Feasibility Study to 1979 JICA Master Plan.....	35
2.7	Derivation of the Legislative Aspect of the JICA Zoning Concept from the 1966 Japanese Ancient Cities Preservation Law.....	37
2.8	Influence of Japanese Cultural Perception Approach in the JICA Master Plan.....	39
2.9	Scholars' Criticisms of the JICA Master Plan and Counterarguments from Nagai.....	41
2.10	Japanese Heritage Practitioners to Support the Landscape Concept in the JICA Master Plan.....	43
2.11	Conclusion	44
	References	45
3	Buffering Borobudur for Socioeconomic Development in the 1980s: An Approach Distinct from European Value-Based Heritage Management	49
3.1	Introduction.....	49
3.2	The Evolution of Buffer Zones in the European-Dominated Heritage Discourse and World Heritage System.....	51
3.3	Community Participation in Heritage Management	54
3.4	Buffer Zones as Management Tools	55
3.5	The Borobudur Archeological Park Concept in the 1979 JICA Master Plan.....	56
3.6	Advocacy of the JICA Master Plan: Community Participation in the Safeguarding of Borobudur.....	57
3.7	Outline of the Updated Plan.....	58
3.8	The Educational Function of Buffer Zones.....	59
3.9	Strategic Use of Social, Cultural, and Economic Factors of the Buffer Zone.....	60
3.10	Limitations of the Park Project	61
	3.10.1 Breaches of Fair Indemnity to the Land Owners	63
	3.10.2 Non-involvement of the Community in the Decision-Making on Resettlement.....	63
	3.10.3 Forced Displacement.....	64
3.11	Conclusion	66
	References.....	67
4	Evolution of Heritage Discourse and Community Involvement at Borobudur: Post-Implementation Phase of JICA Master Plan from the 1990s Until the Twenty First Century	71
4.1	Introduction.....	71
4.2	Concentration of the Park Project in the 1980s and Segregation of the Community from the Management of Heritage and Wider Cultural Landscape.....	72

4.3	Influence of the World Heritage System on the Legal Framework for Borobudur Management	74
4.4	Legislative Issues in the Heritage Management of Borobudur in the 1990s	75
4.5	The Shift in Legal Framework from Authority-Driven Heritage Discourse to Community-Participation for Wider Landscape Preservation	79
4.6	Influence of the 1979 JICA Master Plan on the 2014 Presidential Regulation Concerning the Borobudur Spatial Plan	80
4.7	Differences Between the 1979 JICA Master Plan and the 2014 Presidential Regulation Concerning the Borobudur Spatial Plan	83
4.8	Cultural Landscape Setting as a Possible Extension of the World Heritage Nomination.....	84
4.9	Comparison of Land-Use Area at Borobudur between the 1970s and 2000s	85
4.10	Challenges of Poverty at the Borobudur World Heritage Site	90
4.11	Community-Driven Tourism Initiative outside the Borobudur Archeological Park Since the 1990s	93
4.12	A Variety of Traditional Artifacts in the 20 Villages at Borobudur	94
4.13	Authorities' Initiative for Sustainable Tourism Development for Community Life	96
4.14	The Eruption of Mount Merapi and Emergency Response.....	99
4.15	Conclusion	102
	References	103
5	Conclusions	107
	Reference	109
	Appendix A: Changes to the Criteria as Presented in the Operational Guidelines from 1977 to 2005	111
	Appendix B: Adopted Declaration of Commitment at the 'Stakeholders Consultative Meeting on Heritage Tourism Promotion and Revitalization of Local Community Livelihood in Cultural Industries at the Borobudur World Heritage Site' at Borobudur, Manohara Centre of Borobudur Study, 9–10 November 2011	113
	Index	121

Cultural Landscape Management at Borobudur,
Indonesia

Nagaoka, M.

2016, XXV, 124 p. 28 illus., 20 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-42045-5