

Contents

Part I Introduction

Healthcare Provisions in an Aging Society: U.S. Perspective.	3
Ajoy C. Karikkineth
Healthcare Provision in an Aging Society—The European Perspective.	23
Peter Crome and Joanna Fleming
Healthcare Provisions in the Aging Society: Japanese Perspectives	45
Naoko Muramatsu

Part II The Patient(s)

Old, Very Old and Frail.	61
Jean-Pierre Baeyens
Age and the Process of Aging	67
Paul A.F. Jansen
Comprehensive Geriatric Assessment	87
Jacob Blumenthal and Steven R. Gamber
Patients' Clinical Characteristics, Disease Experience, and Perception	103
Sven Stegemann

Part III Clinical Development of Drug Products for Older Adults

Ethical Considerations in Performing Clinical Trials in and for Older People.	117
Florian von Raison and Laurence Hugonot-Diener on behalf of the Geriatric Medicine Working Party (GMWP), European Forum of Good Clinical Practice (EFGCP)

Patient Reported Outcomes in Clinical Trials and Practice with Older Patients	129
Sven Stegemann
Pharmacokinetic and Pharmacodynamic Considerations in Elderly Population	139
Jatinder Kaur Mukker, Ravi Shankar Prasad Singh and Hartmut Derendorf
The Expectation to Treatment Model: A Framework for Adherence and Effectiveness	153
Sven Stegemann
Pharmacoepidemiology and Pharmacovigilance for Safety and Efficacy in Older People	171
Sarah N. Hilmer and Danijela Gnjidic
 Part IV Product Development for Older Adults
Defining Patient Centric Drug Product Design and Its Impact on Improving Safety and Effectiveness	191
Sven Stegemann
Dosing Considerations in Older Adults	217
Gregory J. Hughes and Judith L. Beizer
Oral Drug Product Use in the Elderly Patient Population	225
Robert L. Ternik
Drug Product Development for Older Adults—Multiparticulate Formulations	247
Norbert Pöllinger
Considerations for Topical and Transdermal Drug Delivery in Older Adults	279
Sven Stegemann
Parenteral Drug Delivery for Older Patients	291
Sagarika Bose
Inhalation and Nasal Formulations	331
Jolyon Mitchell
Ophthalmic Drug Development and the Elderly	383
Patrick Hughes and Sesha Neervannan
Developing Drug Administration Devices for Geriatric Use	403
Tom Sam
Manufacturing Platforms for Patient-Centric Drug Products	447
Mark W. Wilson

Novel Manufacturing Technologies for the Production of Patient-Centric Drug Products	485
Mark W. Wilson, Luigi Martini and Allan Clarke
Part V Drug Therapy in Older Adults
Prescribing to Older Adults	519
Sunny A. Linnebur
Multimorbidity and Polypharmacy	549
Jennifer G. Naples and Emily R. Hajjar
Vaccination in Older Adults	563
Andreas H. Leischker
Medication Reviews in Older Adults	577
Emily P. Peron and Kelechi C. Ogbonna
The Personalization of Drug Therapy for Elderly Patients	589
Jan F. Schlender, Adam G. Golden, Tanay S. Samant, Chakradhar V. Lagishetty and Stephan Schmidt
Importance of Clinical Nutrition in Therapy to Older Adults	613
Ruediger Thiesemann
Part VI Management of Drug Therapy in Older Adults
Managing Drug Therapy of Older Patients in Primary and Secondary Care	629
Gabriel Ariza, Marta Martínez-Reig and Pedro Abizanda
Medication Adherence and Monitoring	659
Hubert Ebner and Günter Schreier
Medication Compounding in the Provision of Drug Therapy	675
Linda F. McElhiney
Geriatric Pharmacotherapy: Optimisation Through Integrated Approach in the Hospital Setting	683
Mirko Petrovic, Annemie Somers and Graziano Onder
Part VII Regulatory Guidance on Geriatric Medicines
European Medicines Agency (EMA): Regulatory Perspectives on Geriatric Medicines	701
Francesca Cerreta and David Bowen
Views on the Therapeutic Needs of Older Adults	719
S.W. Johnny Lau and Raman K. Baweja

Part VIII Concluding RemarksFuture Perspectives in Drug Therapy of Older Adults. 737

Amanda Lavan, Paul Gallagher and Denis O'Mahony

Opportunities in Drug Product Development in an Aging Population 759

Sven Stegemann

Erratum to: European Medicines Agency (EMA): Regulatory Perspectives on Geriatric Medicines E1

Francesca Cerreta and David Bowen

Index 769

Developing Drug Products in an Aging Society

From Concept to Prescribing

Stegemann, S. (Ed.)

2016, XVIII, 771 p. 96 illus., 85 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-43097-3