

Contents

- 1 Building a Culture of Health 1
 - Background 3
 - Public and Social Sector Responses 7
 - Business Involvement in Public Health 11
 - The Population Health Footprint 14
 - Establishing a Corporate Culture of Health 15
 - Common Barriers 17
 - The Case for Engagement 21
 - How to Engage: Creating Shared Value 24
 - Conclusion 25
- 2 Consumer Health 27
 - Why Corporations Advance Consumer Health 32
 - Why Corporations Subordinate Consumer Health 33
 - Issues in Consumer Health 34
 - Regulation and Innovation 34
 - Regulatory Responsibility 36
 - Unintended Consequences 37
 - Lobbying 39
 - What Is “Healthy”? 41
 - How Corporations Pursue Consumer Health 43
 - Enhancing Product or Service Quality 44
 - Design 44
 - Materials and Ingredients 46
 - Supply Chain Management 48
 - Safety Testing 49
 - Packaging 51
 - Re-evaluating Sales and Distribution Decisions 53
 - Improving Consumer Use 54
 - Advocating for Improved Disposal 55

Advancing Industry Standards	56
Conclusion	58
Discussion Questions on Consumer Health	58
3 Employee Health	59
Context	60
Why Employers Invest in Employee Health	61
How Employers Promote Employee Health	69
Workplace Safety	69
Employee Benefit Programs	72
Health Insurance	73
Workplace Wellness Programs	76
Mental Health Programs	80
Other Company-Specific Benefits	83
Wage Standards	84
Company Structure and Culture	86
Conclusion	88
Discussion Questions on Employee Health	89
4 Community Health	91
The Need for Community Health	94
A Brief History of Corporations and Community Health	96
Why Corporations Pursue Community Health	97
Why Communities Seek Corporate Partnership	101
How Corporations Impact Community Health	102
Ways Corporations Pursue Community Health	102
Barriers to Corporate Involvement in Community Health and Potential Solutions	108
Conclusion	114
Discussion Questions on Community Health	114
5 Environmental Health	117
Corporate Involvement	119
The Environment and Health	122
Issues in Environmental Health	124
Politics	124
Vulnerability	125
Responsibility	126
Transparency	129
Why Corporations Support Environmental Health	130
Barriers to Corporate Involvement in Environmental Health	132
How Corporations Support Environmental Health	134
Product and Service Innovation	134
Products	134
Services	136

Operations Management	138
Sourcing	138
Manufacturing	139
Distribution	140
Consumer Use and Disposal	141
Philanthropic Giving	142
Investment Strategies	143
Policy Engagement	145
Conclusion	146
Discussion Questions on Environmental Health.	146
6 Implementing a Culture of Health	147
Creating a Roadmap for Change.	150
Organizing for Change	153
Vision, Values, and the Chief Executive	153
Operational Leadership.	154
Incentives	156
Networks of Support.	157
Measuring Progress.	157
Guidance for PHF Metrics	163
Partnering for Change.	164
Best Practices	166
Aligning Mission and Vision	166
Organizing and Incentivizing Change.	166
Analyzing Health Impacts.	167
Creating New Programs	167
Scaling the Opportunity	167
Conclusion	168
About the Authors.	169
Index.	171

Building a Culture of Health

A New Imperative for Business

Quelch, J.A.; Boudreau, E.C.

2016, XI, 174 p. 22 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-43722-4