Continuous-Space Language Processing: Beyond Word Embeddings	3
Mari Ostendorf

Language

Testing the Robustness of Laws of Polysemy and Brevity Versus Frequency . . .	19
Antoni Hernández-Fernández, Bernardino Casas, Ramon Ferrer-i-Cancho, and Jaume Baixeries
Delexicalized and Minimally Supervised Parsing on Universal Dependencies	30
David Mareček
Unsupervised Morphological Segmentation Using Neural Word Embeddings.	43
Ahmet Üstün and Burcu Can

Speech

Statistical Analysis of the Prosodic Parameters of a Spontaneous Arabic Speech Corpus for Speech Synthesis.	57
Ikbel Hadj Ali and Zied Mnasri
Combining Syntactic and Acoustic Features for Prosodic Boundary Detection in Russian	68
Daniil Kocharov, Tatiana Kachkovskaia, Aliya Mirzagitova, and Pavel Skrelin
Articulatory Gesture Rich Representation Learning of Phonological Units in Low Resource Settings.	80
Brij Mohan Lal Srivastava and Manish Shrivastava
Estimating the Severity of Parkinson's Disease Using Voiced Ratio and Nonlinear Parameters.	96
Dávid Sztahó and Klára Vicsi
Optimal Feature Set and Minimal Training Size for Pronunciation Adaptation in TTS	108
Marie Tahon, Raheel Qader, Gwénolé Lecorvé, and Damien Lolive

A New Perspective on Combining GMM and DNN Frameworks for Speaker Adaptation	120
Natalia Tomashenko, Yuri Khokhlov, and Yannick Estève
Class n-Gram Models for Very Large Vocabulary Speech Recognition of Finnish and Estonian	133
Matti Varjokallio, Mikko Kurimo, and Sami Virpioja
