

Contents

1 Sexually Harmful Youth: Successful Reintegration to School	1
Defining Normal Sexual Behavior Versus Sexually
Harmful Behavior	2
Normal Sexual Behavior	2
What Is Sexually Harmful Behavior?	2
Theories of Sexual Offending	3
Beech and Ward's Integration of Etiology and Risk	3
Finkelhor's Precondition Model	4
Hall and Hirschman's Four-Factor Theory	4
Malamuth Heavy and Linz's Hierarchical Meditational
Confluence Model	5
Ward and Siegert's Pathway Model	5
Marshall and Barbaree's Integrated Theory	6
References	7
2 A Comparison to Other Deviant Groups	11
Intragroup Similarities/Differences and Special Populations	12
Females Who Sexually Harm Intragroup Similarities/Differences	12
Young Children Who Sexually Harm Intragroup
Similarities/Differences	14
Intellectually and Developmentally Disabled Youth Intragroup
Similarities/Differences	16
Offense Type Intragroup Similarities/Differences	16
Racial and Ethnic Considerations	17
Race/Ethnicity	17
Race/Ethnicity and Sexual Attitudes and Perceptions	18
Child and Family Risk Factors	19
Abuse and Early Exposure to Sex and Violence	19
Interpersonal Skill Deficits	20
Atypical Sexual Interests and Attitudes	21
History of Delinquent Behavior	21

Combination of Risk Factors.	22
Risk for Recidivism	22
Predictors of Sexual Recidivism	23
References.	24
3 Psychologically Evaluating the Youth Who Engages in Sexually Harmful Behavior	31
Academic and Cognitive Functioning	31
Risk Assessment	32
Narrow Band Behavioral Scales	35
Levels of Prevention	36
Prevention Programs	37
Argument for Services	38
Do Youth Who Sexually Harm Belong on the Sexual Registry?	39
References.	40
4 Recommendations for Re-entry into the Schools.	43
Communication/Information Sharing.	43
Considerations for Re-entry into the Schools	44
Benefits to Successful Re-integration	45
Barrier to Re-entry	46
Treatment Approaches for Sexually Harmful Youth	46
Outside Treatment Approaches	46
Treatment for Young Children	47
Treatment for Females	48
Treatment for Intellectually/Developmentally Disabled	48
The School's Role in Treatment	49
Discussion.	50
References.	51

Sexually Harmful Youth

Successful Reintegration to School

Mulligan, C.A.; Ayoub, J.; Kostelnik, C.E.

2016, X, 53 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-47396-3