

Contents

Neurosis and Assimilation . . . . .	1
Assimilation . . . . .	1
Assimilation, Neurosis and Tautology . . . . .	6
Two Forms of Assimilation: The Tautological and the Exotic . . . . .	8
Philosophy of Neurosis . . . . .	16
Neurosis: Against Mechanistic and Teleological Philosophy . . . . .	22
The Beginnings of Aneurysmal Philosophy: A Philosophy for Aneurysms or the Aneurysm of Philosophy . . . . .	30
Kant . . . . .	30
Plato . . . . .	32
Nietzsche . . . . .	34
Meillassoux . . . . .	34
The Aneurysm . . . . .	35
Embodiment . . . . .	37
Hegel and Neurosis: Idealism, Phenomenology and Realism . . . . .	38
Hegel . . . . .	38
Neurosis . . . . .	41
Plato . . . . .	43
The Last Instance . . . . .	43
Against the Idea: Composition and the Last Instance . . . . .	46
Where Is the Space for Neurosis Within Experience? . . . . .	53
Concept, Object, Phenomenology, Assimilation, Neurosis . . . . .	61
The Age of Tautology and Unbinding Concept from Object. . . . .	63
Bibliography . . . . .	65

Neurosis and Assimilation

Contemporary Revisions on The Life of the Concept

Johns, C.

2016, XXIX, 66 p. 1 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-47541-7