

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Bibi van den Berg
Part I Legal and Regulatory Issues in 3D Printing
2	When 3D Printing and the Law Get Together, Will Crazy Things Happen?	11
	Michael Weinberg
3	CC-PlusDesign.eu—Or How to Apply Creative Commons Licences to 3D Printed Products in the Light of the Most Recent Developments of the European Court of Justice Case Law	37
	Thomas Margoni
4	From Material Scarcity to Artificial Abundance: The Case of FabLabs and 3D Printing Technologies	65
	Primavera De Filippi and Peter Troxler
Part II Social, Political and Philosophical Implications of 3D Printing
5	Possible Printings: On 3D Printing, Database Ontology, and Open (Meta)Design	87
	Jos de Mul
6	The Focal Practice of 3D Printing	99
	Esther Keymolen
7	The Killer Idea: How Some Gunslinging Anarchists Held Freedom of Speech at Gunpoint	117
	Gert van Vugt

Part III Economics, Innovation and 3D Printing

8	Fraud and Froth: Free-Riding the 3D Printing Wave	137
	Jonathan Coopersmith
9	A Taxonomy of Online 3D Printing Platforms	153
	Thierry Rayna and Ludmila Striukova
10	Adaptivity and Rapid Prototyping: How 3D Printing Is Changing Business Model Innovation.	167
	Thierry Rayna and Ludmila Striukova
11	How Will Society Adopt 3D Printing?	183
	Peter Troxler and Caspar van Woensel

3D Printing

Legal, Philosophical and Economic Dimensions

van den Berg, B.; van der Hof, S.; Kosta, E. (Eds.)

2016, IX, 212 p. 21 illus., 16 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-94-6265-095-4

A product of T.M.C. Asser Press