

Contents

Part I Conversation and Sentiment

1 Introduction	3
1.1 Cause of Conversation and Sentiment.	4
1.2 Study of Cultural Geographic Environment of Conversation and Sentiment	7
1.3 Presentation of Conversation and Sentiment on Architecture	10
1.4 Summary	12
References	12
2 “Conversation” Cases	13
2.1 Ganden Sumtseling Monastery: Conversing with the First and the Last Sunlight of Day	13
2.2 Temple of Heaven: Worshiping to Heaven and Praying for Good Harvest.	23
2.3 Gaocheng Astronomical Observatory: Speaking with the Sun in the Daytime and the Stars at Night.	33
2.4 Yellow Crane Tower and Qingchuan Pavilion: Facing Each Other Across the Yangtze River	43
2.5 Leifeng and Baochu Pagodas: Two Pagodas Opposite to Each Other in One Lake	54
2.6 Jichang Garden: A Dialogue with Fish	64
References	71
3 “Sentiment” Cases	75
3.1 Yangguan and Yumenguan Passes: Places to Say Farewell	75
3.2 Yueyang Tower: Poem Composed with the Feeling of Considering the Country and People	86
3.3 Gyanak Mani Field: Prayer Stones Beyond Number.	97
References	102

Part II Halting and Advancing

4 Introduction	107
4.1 The Advancing Road	107
4.2 Places to Halt One's Footsteps	110
4.3 Summary	112
References	113
5 "Halting" Cases	115
5.1 Love Nightfall Pavilion: Stopping the Carriage to Sit in the Beloved Maple Wood at Nightfall	115
5.2 Wuli Village in Bingzhongluo: A Rest Stop on the Ancient Tea Horse Road	123
5.3 Cockcrow Postal Town: A Rest Station for the Weary Courier	132
5.4 Huguang Guild Hall: Fellow Townsmen Gathering in an Alien Land	140
References	146
6 "Advancing" Cases	149
6.1 Sun Yat-Sen Mausoleum: Marching Forward Without Hesitation	149
6.2 Changkong Trail of Mount Hua: The Most Dangerous Hiking Trail in Mount Hua	158
6.3 Ningwu Hanging Temple: Steps Along the Cliff Face	164
6.4 Eighteen Bends of Mount Tai: Rising Straight up to the Sky	171
6.5 Qinghai-Tibet Railway: Miraculous Pathway to Heaven	180
References	190

Part III Integration and Isolation

7 Introduction	195
7.1 Cultural Geographic Origins of Integration and Isolation	195
7.2 To Integrate and to Isolate	199
7.3 Summary	201
References	202
8 "Integration" Cases	203
8.1 Bridge-Tower Hall on Mount Cangyan: A Temple on an Amazing Stone Arch Bridge Across Towering Cliffs	203
8.2 Langqiao in Taishun County: Resembling a Rainbow Spanning the Sky	211
8.3 Longjin Wind and Rain Bridge: Pressing on Through Wind and Rain	219
8.4 Dujiangyan Irrigation System: Irrigating the Min River to Raise the Country of Heaven	225

8.5	Lingqu Canal: A Canal Joins Two Rivers	234
8.6	Turpan Karez System: An Underground Canal in the Gobi Desert	245
	References	252
9	“Isolation” Cases	255
9.1	Hakka Earthen Buildings: A Enclosed Community.	255
9.2	Tunpu Villages: A Ming Dynasty Settlement Frozen in Time . . .	266
9.3	Ancient Postal Roads of the Niangziguan and Guguan Passes: Wheel Ruts Evincing a Well-Traveled Thoroughfare	276
	References	284
	Appendix	287

Geo-Architecture and Landscape in China's Geographic and Historic Context

Volume 1 Geo-Architecture Wandering in the Landscape

Wang, F.

2016, XXXI, 297 p. 338 illus., 260 illus. in color.,

Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-0481-0