

Contents

Part I Houses and Tombs

1 Introduction	3
1.1 Geographical Roots of Architecture	4
1.2 Geographical Revelation of Houses and Tombs	7
1.3 Summary	9
References	10
2 “Houses” Cases	11
2.1 Aba Tibetan Villages: Home at the Foot of Snow Mountain	11
2.2 Hani Ethnic Villages: Home on a Mountainside Terrace Field	20
2.3 Xijiang Miao Ethnic Villages: Thousands of Diaojiaolou of Column-and-Tie Construction	29
2.4 Mongolian Yurt: Transition from Nomadic to Settled Life	37
2.5 Marine Fishing Village at Sandu Bay: A Village Floating on the Sea	48
2.6 Gongtan Ancient Town: Diaojiaolou on a 40° River Bank	55
2.7 Yangchi Ancient Village: A Village with a Comb-Shaped Layout	64
2.8 Residence of the Huangcheng Chancellor: Defensive Fortifications of an Official Residential Complex	73
2.9 Zhangguying Village: Charming, Rain or Shine	84
2.10 Ancient Huizhou Villages in Wuyuan County: Simple Beauty of High Walls and Narrow Lanes	92
References	102
3 “Tombs” Cases	107
3.1 Eastern Qing Mausoleums: Endowed with the Spirit of the Monarchs	107
3.2 Western Xia Imperial Tombs: Astrolabe at the Foot of Helan Mountain	117

3.3	Tombs of the Ancient Koguryo Kingdom: Mausoleum Mounds with Tapering Tops on the Plain	126
3.4	Pagoda Forest of the Shaolin Monastery: A Hallowed Cemetery for Eminent Monks	134
3.5	Qingtongxia One-Hundred-and-Eight Dagobas: The Truth of Buddhism in Numbers	144
	References	148

Part II Religion and Empire

4	Introduction	153
4.1	The Geographical Source of Religion and Empire	154
4.2	The Geographical Revelation of Religion and Empire.	156
4.3	Summary	158
	References	158
5	“Religion” Cases	159
5.1	Ancient Building Complexes in the Wudang Mountains: Royal Taoist Temples	159
5.2	Leshan Giant Buddha: The Height of the Giant Buddha is the Same as that of the Mountain	167
5.3	Feilai Temple: A View to Enjoy Snow-Capped Mountains and a Place to Experience a Restful Mind	175
5.4	Manfeilong Pagoda: Lotus Tower Group of Theravada Buddhism	180
5.5	Emin Minaret and Mosque: Islamic Architecture Embraced by Local Customs	184
5.6	Qingdao Christian Church: The Colonial Relic Beside the Sea . .	191
	References	197
6	“Empire” Cases	199
6.1	Shenyang Imperial Palace: The Rise of Emperor Hong Taiji	199
6.2	Anlan Dragon King Temple: Not-in-Capital Palace of the Qing Dynasty	208
6.3	Dai Temple: Where the Emperors Offered Worship of Heaven and Earth	216
6.4	Ruins of the Guge Kingdom: A Mysterious Castle on the Top of a Hill	225
6.5	Enshi Tusi Imperial City: Palace of the Tujia Ethnic Group in Western Hubei.	235
	References	241
	Appendix	245

Geo-Architecture and Landscape in China's Geographic and Historic Context

Volume 2 Geo-Architecture Inhabiting the Universe

Wang, F.

2016, XXV, 255 p. 293 illus., 214 illus. in color.,

Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-0484-1