

Contents

1	Counselling in India: An Introduction to the Volume	1
	Sujata Sriram
2	Counsellor Characteristics and the Counselling Experience	13
	Swarnima Bhargava and Sujata Sriram
3	Challenges Experienced by Novice Counsellors.	35
	Chetna Duggal and Mithila Rao
4	Synergies Between Personal and Professional Lives of Counsellors	55
	Sinduja Vummidi and Sandhya Limaye
5	Beginning the Journey: What Motivates Therapists to Join the Profession?	75
	Chetna Duggal and Sujata Sriram
6	Exploring Values of Therapists in India	91
	Rashmi Rangarajan and Chetna Duggal
7	Training in Counselling: Trainers' Perspectives.	113
	Sujata Sriram and Sneha Anant Nikam
8	Exploring Expressions: Therapists' Use of the Creative Arts in Therapy	137
	Afshan Mariam and Aparna Joshi
9	The Role of a School Counsellor	163
	Sindhura Tammana
10	Marital Counselling in India: Perspectives from Family Court Counsellors	183
	Sujata Sriram and Chetna Duggal

11 Telephone Counselling in India: Lessons from iCALL	201
Sujata Sriram, Aparna Joshi and Paras Sharma
12 The Road Ahead: Conclusion and Directions for Future Research	217
Sujata Sriram

<http://www.springer.com/978-981-10-0583-1>

Counselling in India

Reflections on the Process

Sriram, S. (Ed.)

2016, XV, 226 p. 2 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-0583-1