

Contents

1	Introduction: Why It Is Important to Answer Back.....	1
	Anna Sullivan
2	Daring to Disagree About School ‘Discipline’: An Australian Case Study of a Media-Led Backlash.....	15
	Bruce Johnson
3	Understanding and Challenging Dominant Discourses About Student Behaviour at School	27
	Bruce Johnson and Anna Sullivan
4	Promoting Pedagogies of Engagement in Secondary Schools: Possibilities for Pedagogical Reform	45
	Robert Hattam and Anna Sullivan
5	Goodbye Mr Chips, Hello Dr Phil?	63
	Roger Slee
6	Rethinking Mis/Behaviour in Schools: From ‘Youth as a Problem’ to the ‘Relational School’	77
	Barry Down
7	Reframing ‘Behaviour’ in Schools: The Role of Recognition in Improving Student Wellbeing.....	97
	Anne Graham, Julia Truscott, Mary Ann Powell, and Donnah Anderson
8	‘Schoolwork’ and ‘Teachers’: Disaffected Boys Talk About Their Problems with School	115
	Linda J. Graham
9	Beyond the ‘Habits’ of ‘Punishing, Criticising and Nagging’: Fostering Respectful and Socially Just Student Relations Using Critical Pedagogies	133
	Amanda Keddie

10	Overcoming the ‘Hidden Injuries’ of Students from Refugee Backgrounds: The Importance of Caring Teacher–Student Relationships	145
	Melanie Baak
11	Against the Tide: Enacting Respectful Student Behaviour Polices in ‘Zero Tolerance’ Times	163
	Bruce Johnson and Anna Sullivan
12	‘Answering Back’: Some Concluding Thoughts	181
	Bruce Johnson and Anna Sullivan
	Index.....	191

<http://www.springer.com/978-981-10-0626-5>

Challenging Dominant Views on Student Behaviour at School

Answering Back

Sullivan, A.; Johnson, B.; Lucas, B. (Eds.)

2016, VIII, 196 p. 12 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-0626-5