1	Introduction to Efficiency and Competitiveness of International Airlines	1
1.1	Overview of the Airline Industry	1
1.2	Background to Airlines' Competitiveness	4
1.3	The Conceptual Framework	6
1.4	The Objectives	7
1.5	Data and Methodology	9
	Appendix 1.1: US Carrier Exit and Entry Dates	10
	Appendix 1.2: Airlines and Countries	11
	References	13
2	Survey of Studies on Airlines and Their Efficiencies	15
2.1	Efficiency, Productivity, and Factor Use	15
2.1.1	Stochastic Frontier Production and Cost Functions	17
2.1.2	Nonparametric Approaches	19
2.1.3	Malmquist Productivity Analysis	24
2.1.4	Other Performance Measurement Methods	25
2.2	Alliance Formation and Market Liberalization	28
2.3	Market Concentration, Market Power and Competition	30
2.4	Other Issues	35
2.5	The Conclusion	39
	Appendix 2.1: Summary of Productivity and Efficiency Studies	40
	References	47
3	A Review of the Airline Industry	51
3.1	Terms Related to Air Transportation	51
3.2	Industry Status	52
3.3	Growth of the Airline Industry	53
3.4	Cost Reduction	55
3.5	Airline Industry's Central Role in Globalization.	55
3.6	Airlines' Impact on Related Industries	58

3.7	Issues of the Airline Industry	59
3.8	Airlines' Performance.	60
3.8.1	The Factors Influencing Airlines' Performance.	60
3.8.2	Improving Performance Despite Difficult Conditions	62
3.8.3	Productivity Enhancement.	63
3.8.4	Liberalization	63
3.9	Other Issues	64
3.10	Market Structure, Liberalization and Access	65
3.10.1	Current Restrictions and Barriers	65
3.11	Summary of the Airline Industry and Its Evolution	66
	Appendix 3.1: The Chicago Convention.	66
	Appendix 3.2: Freedoms of the Air	68
	Appendix 3.3: Abbreviations and Their Definitions	69
	References	72
4	Stochastic Frontier Production Function Model Specification and Estimation Results	75
4.1	Introduction	75
4.2	Stochastic Frontier Production Function	76
4.3	Model Specification	77
4.3.1	The Error Components Specification	78
4.3.2	The Technical Efficiency Effects Specification	79
4.4	Data and Variables.	80
4.5	Estimation and Analysis of Results	89
4.5.1	Analysis of the Estimation Results	90
4.5.2	Airline Efficiency.	100
4.6	Summary and Conclusion	111
	Appendix 4.1: Development of Different International Airline Production Efficiency, 1998–2012 (EC Model)	114
	Appendix 4.2: Development of Different International Airline Production Efficiency, 1998–2012 (EE Model)	116
	Appendix 4.3: Alliance Memberships and Market Data	118
	Appendix 4.4: Correlation Matrix of Production Frontier Model Variables	119
	References	119
5	Stochastic Frontier Cost Function Model Specification and Estimation Results	123
5.1	Introduction	123
5.2	Model Specification	124
5.3	Data and Variables.	127
5.3.1	Operating Costs.	127
5.3.2	Explanatory Variables	129
5.3.3	Airlines' Characteristics	130

5.4	Estimation and Analysis of Results	134
5.4.1	Analysis of the Estimation Results	134
5.4.2	Airline Efficiency.	141
5.5	Summary and Conclusion.	155
	Appendix 5.1: Development of Airline Cost Efficiency Over Time Based on the EC Model Specification	157
	Appendix 5.2: Development of Airline Cost Efficiency Over Time Based on the EE Model Specification	159
	Appendix 5.3: Correlation Matrix of the Determinants of Cost Efficiency Effects.	161
	References	162
6	Summary, Conclusion, and Policy Recommendations	165
6.1	Summary of Analysis.	165
6.2	Policy Implications	168
6.2.1	Airlines Strategy	168
6.2.2	Market Share.	169
6.2.3	Airline Prices	172
6.2.4	Domestic Competition	173
6.2.5	Regional Operation Effect.	174
6.3	Limitations and Recommendations for Future Research	174
6.4	Conclusion and Policy Recommendations	175
	Appendix 6.1: Mean of Air Liberalization Index (ALI) by Countries, 1998–2012.	176
	Appendix 6.2: Types of Air Services Agreements (ASA).	178
	Appendix 6.3: Air Liberalization Index (ALI) Weighting Systems.	179
	Appendix 6.4: Airlines with Within Airline Operating Status	180
	References	181
	Index of Authors.	183
	Index of Subjects	187
