

Contents

1 Introduction	1
References	6
2 CE and School Leadership: Theoretical Perspectives	9
Concepts of Citizenship and CE	9
Citizenship and the Nation-State	10
CE and the Nation-State	11
Theories of School Leadership	14
School Leadership: Three Major Approaches	14
School Leadership: Its Micro- and Macro-politics	15
Curriculum Leadership as an Integral Part of School Leadership	18
Debates on School Leadership in China	20
Dual-Line Leadership in Chinese Schools	20
Politics and Chinese School Leadership	21
Curriculum Leadership in Chinese Schools	23
Theoretical Issues of CE in China	25
The Nature and Purposes of Chinese CE	25
Tension Between CE and Academic Instruction	27
Who Should Lead CE in School?	28
Theoretical Framework Proposed by This Book	29
Summary	31
References	32
3 Social Change, School Leadership, and CE in China:
A Historical Review	43
The CPC as the Most Powerful Macro-political Actor in China	44
Integrating Politics with State Governance	44
Directing and Regulating Economic Development	47
Stressing Political Construction	50
The Integration of Politics and Education in China	52
The CPC as Manipulator of Education's Oscillating Political and Economic Tasks	52

The CPC as the Principal Definer of CE	56
The CPC as the Macro Designer of School Leadership	59
Summary	63
References	63
4 A General Picture of School Leadership and CE in Shanghai	69
Social and Educational Context of Shanghai	70
CE in Shanghai	72
Institutionalization of Shanghai CE	72
Politics-Oriented CE Programs in Shanghai	74
CE Approaches Adopted from National Policies and Added New Ones to Suit for Local Policies	75
School Leadership System in Shanghai	77
Shanghai's Initiative of Reforming School Leadership System	77
Shanghai Principals' and SPSs' Dual Qualifications	78
Shanghai Principals' and SPSs' Dual and Intertwined Responsibilities	79
Summary	84
References	85
5 School Leaders' Perceptions and Responses to the CPC-Led State's Policies and Requirements: Four Major Scenarios	89
Scenario I: Active Acceptance	89
Principals' Active Acceptance of CE Policies and Regulations	89
SPSs' Active Acceptance of CE Policies and Regulations	92
Comparison of Principals' and SPSs' Active Acceptance	95
Scenario II: Passive Acceptance	96
Principals' Passive Acceptance of Policies and Requirements	96
SPSs' Passive Acceptance of Policies and Regulations	98
Comparison of Principals' and SPSs' Passive Acceptance	100
Scenario III: Supportive Modification	101
Principals' Supportive Modification of CE Policies and Requirements	101
SPSs' Supportive Modification of CE Policies and Requirements	104
Comparison of Principals' and SPSs' Supportive Modification	106
Scenario IV: Unsupportive Modification	107
Principals' Unsupportive Modification of CE Policies and Requirements	107
SPSs' Unsupportive Modification of CE Policies and Requirements	108
Comparison of Principals' and SPSs' Unsupportive Modification	109
Summary	110
Reference	110

6 Complicated Working Relationship Between Principals and SPSs: Coexistence of Cooperation and Contention	111
The Cooperation Between Principals and SPSs	111
Cooperation Between Principals and SPSs:
The Principals' Perspective	112
Cooperation Between Principals and SPSs:
The SPSs' Perspective	114
Comparison of Cooperation Between Principals and SPSs	116
The Competition Between Principals and SPSs	117
Contending with SPSs for Power.	118
Contending with Principals for Power.	120
The Comparison of Principals' and SPSs' Competition	124
Summary	125
7 Factors Shaping School Leadership in CE	127
Influence of Contextual Factors at Multiple Levels	127
The Integration of Politics and Education.	131
The State's Regulations on School Organization	132
The State's Control Over School Leaders' Appointment.	134
The State's Forcible Requirement for School Leaders' Professional and Political Trainings	136
The State's Close Inspection of School Leaders' Work.	138
The Stakeholders' Challenges Confronting Both Principals and SPSs.	139
Multiple Stakeholders' Demands on Students' Values and Behaviors.	140
The Interplay of Diverse Stakeholders' Demands on High Student Academic Performance.	141
Challenges from School Internal Stakeholders	143
The Impact of Principals' and SPSs' Individual Factors	145
Summary	147
References.	148
8 Discussion and Conclusion: School Leadership in CE as a Political Exercise	151
The Meaning of School Leadership in CE in Shanghai	152
School Leadership in CE as a Political Exercise.	155
Political Exercise as Intertwined Interactions of Political Actors in Multi-leveled Contexts	156
Political Exercise as Maneuvering Political and Administrative Responsibilities	158
Political Exercise as Mediation of Different Actors' Diverse Interests.	161
School Leaders' Role in Political Exercise	164
Theoretical Implications of the Book	167
Revisiting Theories of CE	167
Revisiting Theories of Political School Leadership.	168

Revisiting Theories of School Micro-politics 170

Revisiting Theories of Leadership in CE. 172

Conclusion. 173

References 175

Appendix: Methodology 177

Index. 191

<http://www.springer.com/978-981-10-1641-7>

School Leadership, Citizenship Education and Politics in China

Experiences from Junior Secondary Schools in Shanghai
Xu, S.

2016, XVII, 195 p. 3 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-1641-7