

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Teaching? Literature?	1
	Ben Knights
2	Contrasts: Teaching English in British and American Universities	17
	Gretchen H. Gerzina
3	Transition and Discontinuity: Pitfalls and Opportunities in the Move to University English Universities	31
	Andrew Green and Gary Snapper
4	The Shame of Teaching (English)	51
	Rosie Miles
5	Transition into the Profession: Accuracy, Sincerity and ‘Disciplinary Consciousness’	67
	Robert Eaglestone
6	‘Getting in Conversation’: Teaching African American Literature and Training Critical Thinkers	81
	Nicole King

7	Beyond the Essay? Assessment and English Literature Jonathan Gibson	99
8	Critical or Creative? Teaching Crossover Writing in English Studies Chris Thurgar-Dawson	115
9	Teaching ‘Literature+’: Digital Humanities Hybrid Courses in the Era of MOOCs Alan Liu	133
10	Teaching Stylistics: Foregrounding in E.E. Cummings Dan McIntyre and Lesley Jeffries	155
11	Teaching Historically: Some Limits to Historicist Teaching Simon Dentith	173
12	Towards an Unprecedented Ecocritical Pedagogy Greg Garrard	189
13	Opening up the Seminar: Children’s Literature, a Case Study Pamela Knights	209
	Index	249

<http://www.springer.com/978-1-137-31108-5>

Teaching Literature

Text and Dialogue in the English Classroom

Knights, B. (Ed.)

2017, XI, 252 p. 1 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-1-137-31108-5

A product of Palgrave Macmillan UK