

CONTENTS

1	Class, Intersectionality and Iranian Diaspora	1
1.1	Iranian Women's Employment and Class	4
1.2	Iranian Migrants and Social Class	5
1.3	Making Sense of Class in Migration: Co-constructing Narratives	7
1.4	Iranian Parties, Concerts and Doctors' Hubs	10
1.5	Religion, an Absent Theme in Class Stories	12
1.6	Outline of the Book	13
	References	15
2	Intersectionality and Translocational Class	21
2.1	Classic Literature of Class and the Question of Intersectionality	22
2.1.1	Marxism and Class	22
2.1.2	Status and Class	23
2.1.3	The Cultural Turn to Class	25
2.2	Intersectionality and the Treatment of Class	29
2.2.1	Situated Intersectionality	32
2.2.2	Power Relations and Intersectionality	33
2.2.3	Privileged Position and Intersectionality	35
2.3	Identity and Translocational Positionality	36
2.3.1	Translocational Class	41
2.4	Conclusion	42
	References	43

3	Classed and Gendered Growing up	49
3.1	Educational Surveillance	50
3.1.1	Creating Ambition: Passing on Class to the Girls	51
3.1.2	Mothers and Class Surveillance	52
3.1.3	Lack of Choice or Destined Pathways?	57
3.1.4	Governing the Ambition	59
3.2	Normalisation of Pathways	60
3.2.1	Lack of Ambition as Deviant	62
3.2.2	Not Discussing Class to Construct Classed Identity	64
3.2.3	Embarrassment and Normalisation	66
3.2.4	Westernisation as a 'Normal' Pathway	68
3.3	The Making of a Moral Self	71
3.3.1	Respect	72
3.4	Conclusion	75
	References	78
4	Classed Place-Making	81
4.1	Diasporic Spaces	82
4.2	Countries	85
4.3	Schools	88
4.4	Neighbourhoods	91
4.5	Spatial Class: A Conclusion	94
	References	95
5	Classed Performing	97
5.1	Class-Coded Acts	99
5.1.1	Class and Performance: A Delicate Relationship	101
5.1.2	Performing Class-Coded Acts	101
5.2	Feminine Doctors: Femininity and Educational Capital	105
5.2.1	'Owning' the Doctor's Role: Being Authentic	108
5.2.2	Classed Performance and Morality	110
5.3	Compulsory Class	114
5.3.1	Imagined Images, Real Differences	117
5.4	Translocational Class Performances: A Conclusion	121
	References	123

6	Classed Racialisation	127
6.1	Being Racialised	129
6.2	Racialising Others	136
6.3	Racialisation in Class Construction	140
6.4	Conclusion	141
	References	143
7	Classed Belonging	145
7.1	Foreignness, Power and Class	147
7.1.1	Is There a Glass Ceiling in British Society?	152
7.1.2	'I Make Here My Soil. I Make Here My Country'<sup>4</sup>	154
7.2	'Others' and the Hierarchies of Belonging	158
7.2.1	'Deserving' to Belong	161
7.3	Conclusion	165
	References	167
8	Understanding Class Intersectionally: A Way Forward	169
8.1	Situated Understanding of Class	170
8.2	Intersectionality and Class	171
8.3	Social Locations, Relations and Localities	174
8.4	Complexity of Social Class	178
8.4.1	The Importance of Power	178
8.4.2	The Importance of Inclusion and Exclusion	179
8.4.3	Learning How to Perform Acts that Are Expected	180
	References	181
	Bibliography	183
	Index	191

Intersectionality, Class and Migration
Narratives of Iranian Women Migrants in the U.K.

Fathi, M.

2017, XVII, 193 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-137-52529-1