

Contents

Part I Foundations

1	Religion, Spirituality, Belief, and Culture	3
	General Considerations	3
	Spirituality and Religion	4
	Culture	9
	Implications for Social Work Practice	11
	Notes	12
	References	12
2	Social Work Values, Ethics, and Spirituality	17
	Tracing the Social Work-Religion Connection	17
	Social Work Values	18
	Integrating Religion and Spirituality into Social Work Practice	23
	Engaging the Client	23
	Addressing Values Conflicts	24
	An Ethical Framework for Decision-Making	27
	Social Work Education	28
	Notes	32
	References	33
3	Cultural and Spiritual Humility: A Guiding Principle	37
	Social Work and the Value of Cultural Competence	37
	The Evolution of Cultural Competence in Brief	38
	The Myth of Cultural Competence	41
	Cultural Humility and Cultural Safety and Beyond:
	New Understandings and Implications for Social Work	43
	Notes	46
	References	46

4	The Meaning and Purpose of Ritual	51
	The Meaning and Significance of Ritual	51
	Ritual and the Family	56
	Implications for Social Work	59
	Notes.	61
	References.	61
5	Conducting Religious/Spirituality/Belief Assessments and Histories in Clinical Practice	65
	Preliminary Considerations	65
	Understandings of Religious and Spiritual Development.	65
	Approaches to Religious/Spiritual Assessment	69
	Using the Assessment to Formulate Interventions	76
	References.	78
6	Life Cycles Across Faith Traditions	81
	The Life Cycle Across Diverse Religions	81
	Buddhism	81
	Daily Living	83
	Death.	83
	Christianity	83
	Infancy-Youth	84
	Adulthood	84
	Daily Living	85
	Death.	85
	Hinduism.	86
	Infancy-Youth	86
	Adulthood	87
	Daily Living	89
	Death.	89
	Islam	89
	Infancy-Youth	89
	Adulthood	90
	Daily Living	91
	Death.	92
	Judaism	93
	Infancy-Youth	93
	Adolescence	94
	Adulthood	95
	Daily Living	96
	Death.	97
	Implications for Social Workers	98
	Notes.	99
	References.	100

7	Religious Observances, Festivals, and Celebrations	103
	Observances Across Faiths	103
	The Bahá'í Faith Tradition	103
	Buddhism	109
	Christianity	110
	Hinduism	112
	Islam	112
	Judaism	114
	Implications for Social Work	116
	Notes	118
	References	118
 Part II Preventing, Healing, and Coping with Illness and End of Life
8	Understanding Religion-Based Healing Traditions	123
	Healing Traditions, Religion/Spirituality, and Health	123
	Christian Charismatic Healing	123
	Christian Science	126
	New Age Religions	128
	Shamanism	130
	Santería	133
	Implications for Social Work	137
	References	139
9	Religion, Spirituality, Mental Health, and Mental Illness	143
	Views of Religion in Mental Health Care	143
	Religious and Secular Understandings of Mental Illness	144
	Diagnosis: Religious/Spiritual Experience or Mental Illness?	146
	Building a Therapeutic Alliance	149
	Case Example	151
	Integrating Religious/Spiritual Beliefs and Practices into Care	152
	Additional Considerations for Social Workers	155
	Notes	156
	References	157
10	Preventing and Treating Disease	163
	Religious and Spiritual Activity and Physical Health	163
	Public Religious Activity	163
	Prayer	165
	Lifestyle and Belief	167
	Mechanisms and Pathways of Action	168
	Implications for Working with Clients and Communities	170
	Notes	171
	References	173

11	Religious and Spiritual Practices and Coping	179
	Background	179
	Religious/Spiritual Activities and Coping	180
	Public Religious Activity	183
	Prayer	183
	Meditation	187
	Implications for Social Work Practice	188
	Notes	190
	References	191
12	Understandings of Dying, Death, and Mourning	195
	Attachment, Death, and Grief	195
	Buddhist Perspectives on Death and Mourning	197
	Christian Perspectives on Death and Mourning	198
	The Nature of Death	198
	The Funeral	198
	Hindu Perspectives on Death and Mourning	199
	Islamic Perspectives on Death and Mourning	199
	The Nature of Death	199
	Funeral and Burial Rituals	202
	The Eschaton and Resurrection	204
	Jewish Perspectives on Death and Mourning	207
	Burial	208
	Mourning Rituals	208
	Secular Perspectives	211
	Implications for Social Work	211
	Notes	213
	References	214

Part III Relationship and Community

13	Spirituality, Belief, and Relationship	221
	Relating to Friends and Strangers	221
	Family Relationships	223
	Forgiveness, Apology, and Relationship	223
	Implications for Social Work	228
	Notes	233
	References	233
14	Family Violence and Abuse in the Context of Faith and Belief	237
	Child Abuse, Neglect, and Maltreatment	237
	Overview	237
	Definitions and Approaches	237
	Scriptural Foundations for Child Maltreatment	242

Intimate Partner Abuse	246
Overview.	246
Scripture and Partner Violence	248
Implications for Social Work	251
Interventions	251
Notes.	253
References.	254
15 (Re)Building Bridges in and with Family and Community	263
Conceptualizing Forgiveness.	263
Forgiveness in the Psychological Literature.	264
Forgiveness in the Abrahamic Faiths: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam	265
Forgiveness in Christianity	266
Judaism	266
Islam	268
Forgiveness in Buddhism and Hinduism.	269
Implications for Social Work	270
Social Work with Children and Families.	270
Social Work with Communities.	272
Notes.	274
References.	275
16 Religious and Spiritual Traditions of Altruism, Community Service, and Activism	281
The Nature of Altruism.	281
Altruism Across Faith Communities	282
Buddhism	282
Christianity	285
Hinduism.	286
Islam	287
Judaism.	289
Altruism Across Faiths and Its Implications for Social Work	290
Notes.	292
References.	292
17 Community Worship and Ritual	295
The Nature and Purpose of Community Ritual	295
Community Bonding and Identity	295
Remembrance	299
Community Reconciliation	300
Community Mourning and Healing.	301
Implications for Social Work	302
Notes.	303
References.	303

18	Issues of Inclusion and Exclusion	307
	Understanding Collective Identity Formation	307
	Inclusion and Exclusion: Sexual Orientation as a Case Example of Boundary Construction	310
	Implications for Social Work: Formulating Interventions	313
	Working with Individual Clients	314
	Notes	316
	References	320
19	Spirituality, Religion, and Violent Radicalization	325
	Defining Violent Radicalization	325
	Violent Radicalization in the United States	328
	Christian Identity Theology: Anti-Nonwhite, Anti-Gay	328
	Anti-Abortion Movements: The Army of God and Operation Rescue	330
	Islamic Violent Radicalization	331
	The Process of Radicalization	332
	Underlying Theories and Models	334
	Potential Roles for Social Work	334
	Notes	340
	References	340
 Part IV Religion and Spirituality in Research
20	Assessing Religion and Spirituality in Research	347
	Screens, Assessments, and Histories	347
	Selecting an Instrument	348
	Implications for Social Work	356
	References	357
21	Research with Religious Communities	361
	Defining Community	361
	Engaging with Religious Communities for Research	362
	Developing Access and Trust	362
	Community Representation	363
	Group Dynamics and Power Relations	364
	Risks to the Community and Its Members	366
	Implications for Social Work	368
	Notes	369
	References	370
22	Ethical Issues in Conducting Research on Religion and Spirituality	373
	Ethical Principles of Research	373
	Respect for Persons	374

Beneficence and Nonmaleficence	383
Justice	383
Social Work Research Related to Religion/Spirituality with Children Participants: The Requirement of Assent	384
Other Ethical Considerations	384
Continuing Consent.	384
After the Research—Publication and Dissemination	385
References.	386
Index	389
Index to Scriptural Citations	395

Handbook of Religion and Spirituality in Social Work
Practice and Research

Loue, S.

2017, XXII, 397 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4939-7038-4