

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Historic and Contemporary Hate Crime Statutes	2
	The Emotion of Hate	4
	The Problem of Defining Hate Crimes	5
	The Putative Message from Hate Offenders	7
	The Extent of the Problem	8
	Victim Under Reporting	10
	References	11
2	The Legacy of Hate Crimes in American History	13
	American Lynching	14
	The Birth and Rebirth of the Ku Klux Klan	18
	Anti-semitism and Holocaust Denial	19
	Gay and Lesbian Bashing	22
	References	25
3	The Case for Hate Crime Statutes-Putative Uniqueness of Injuries	29
	Psychological Injuries	30
	Physical Injuries	32
	Secondary Victimization Effects	32
	References	34
4	Offenders, Victims, and Situational Characteristics of the Hate Crime Incident	35
	Offender Characteristics	35
	Victim Characteristics	37
	Situational Characteristics of the Hate Crime Incident	38
	Bias Crime Offender Typology	40
	The Thrill Seeking Offender	40
	The Defensive Bias Offender	41

Mission Bias Offenders	42
The Retaliatory Bias Offender.	42
References	43
5 Legislative Responses to Hate Crimes	45
Racial Animus, Discriminatory Selection, Because of, and Intent to Harass and Intimidate” Statutes	46
Title 28 U.S. § 534—The Hate Crime Statistics Act.	47
Title 28 U.S. § 994—The Hate Crime Sentencing Enhancement Act of 1994	47
Title 42 U.S. § 13701—The Violence Against Women Act of 1994. . .	48
Title 18 U.S. § 247—The Church Arson Prevention Act of 1996. . . .	48
Title 18 U.S. § 249 Matthew Shepard and James Byrd, Jr., Hate Crimes Prevention Act of 2009	48
Select State Hate Crime Statutes	49
References	51
6 Constitutional and Public Policy Issues	53
RAV v. City of St. Paul 505 U.S. 377 (1992).	53
Wisconsin v. Mitchell 508 U.S. 476 (1993)	54
First Amendment Challenges: Hate Crime Statutes are Overbroad	54
Fourteenth Amendment Equal Protection and Due Process Concerns	55
Motive and the Mental State of the Hate Crime Offender	56
The Problem of Over Inclusiveness: Non-purposeful, Unknowing and Unconscious Hate Crimes	58
Unintended Consequences of Hate Crime Legislation: Citizen Resentment, Social Backlash, Proliferation of Prejudice and Disproportionate Prosecution of Minorities	59
References	62
7 The Law Enforcement and Prosecution Dilemma.	65
Factors that Influence Police Departments Interpretations and Reporting of Hate Crimes.	65
The Effect of Police Departments Variations in Training.	66
Investigation Issues: The Classification Decision of Bias Motivation	67
Deciphering Mixed and Secondary Bias Motivations	69
Practical Challenges to Prosecution of Hate Crimes Offenses	73
References	75
8 Summary Discussion and Recommendations	77
References	79
Appendix	81
Index	83

Hate Crime Statutes

A Public Policy and Law Enforcement Dilemma

Pezzella, F.S.

2017, VII, 84 p. 2 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-40840-8