

Contents

1	Setting the Context for Integrated Reporting in the Public Sector	1
1.1	The Scenario: Integrated Reporting and the Public Sector	1
1.2	The Relationship: Public Sector and Environment	4
1.3	The Missing Link: Intangibles, Social Responsibility and Value Creation	6
1.3.1	The Role of Intangibles	6
1.3.2	Defining Intangibles	8
1.3.3	The Link Between Intangibles and Social Responsibility	11
1.4	The Path: (Management) Accounting Process of Change	13
1.5	The Tool: Integrated Reporting	14
	References	19
2	Accounting Change: Integrated Reporting Through the Lenses of Institutional Theory	25
2.1	Accounting Change: An Institutional Perspective	25
2.1.1	Institutional Theory	27
2.1.2	Why Institutional Theory	27
2.1.3	Institutions, Routines and Change	28
2.2	Institutional Approaches: An Overview	31
2.2.1	Old Institutional Economics: The Concept	32
2.2.2	New Institutional Sociology	33
2.3	Management Accounting Change	37
2.3.1	The Nature of Management Accounting Change	38
2.3.2	Understanding the Process of Change	41
2.3.3	The Notion of Change	45
2.3.4	Why and When Change?	47
2.4	Integrated Reporting: An Accounting Change Approach	53
	References	54

3	Principles, Concepts and Elements of Integrated Reporting	65
3.1	The Integrated Reporting Movement	65
3.2	From Sustainability Reports to Integrated Reports	66
3.3	Different Reports for Different Purposes: The Need for IR.	70
3.3.1	Annual Report.	70
3.3.2	Corporate Governance Report.	71
3.3.3	Reporting About Sustainability and Environmental Issue	72
3.3.4	Intellectual Capital Reporting	74
3.3.5	The Need for IR	76
3.4	General Features, Frameworks and Guidelines for the Integrated Reporting	78
3.4.1	The South Africa Integrated Reporting Framework.	78
3.4.2	The <IR> Integrated Reporting Framework.	80
3.5	Drawing the Path from Sustainability to Integrated Reporting	86
3.6	Challenges of Integrated Reporting.	88
	References.	91
4	Accounting Change and Integrated Reporting in Practice: The Case of Hera	95
4.1	The Path Towards Integrated Reporting in Practice	95
4.2	Methodology	96
4.2.1	Event History Database.	97
4.2.2	Gap Analysis Between the Documents and the Standard	98
4.2.3	Key People Perception of Change.	100
4.3	Hera: Context and Background.	106
4.4	Event History Database: 13 Years Towards Integrated Reporting in Hera.	108
4.5	The Gap Analysis: Comparing the Sustainability Report of Hera with the IR Framework	112
4.6	Management Accounting Change Process in Hera	114
	References.	118

Towards Integrated Reporting

Accounting Change in the Public Sector

Katsikas, E.; Manes Rossi, F.; Orelli, R.L.

2017, X, 119 p. 6 illus., 3 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-47234-8