

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Susan Flynn and Antonia Mackay
 Part I Art, Photography and Film
2	Equality and Erasure: Responses to Subject Negation in the Art of Jill Magid	21
	Amy Christmas
3	Camera Performed: Visualising the Behaviours of Technology in Digital Performance	45
	Jaclyn Meloche
4	‘She’s not There’—Shallow Focus on Privacy, Surveillance, and Emerging Techno-Mediated Modes of Being in Spike Jonze’s Her	65
	William Thomas McBride
5	Surveillance in Zero Dark Thirty: Terrorism, Space and Identity	87
	Frances Pheasant-Kelly

- 6 To See and to Be Seen: Surveillance, the Vampiric Lens and the Undead Subject 105
Simon Bacon

Part II Literature

- 7 Watching Through Windows: Bret Easton Ellis and Urban Surveillance 123
Alison Lutton
- 8 Participating in ‘1984’: The Surveillance of Sousveillance from White Noise to Right Now 137
Caleb Andrew Milligan
- 9 Surveillance in Post-Postmodern American Fiction: Dave Eggers’s The Circle, Jonathan Franzen’s Purity and Gary Shteyngart’s *Super Sad True Love Story 151
Virginia Pignagnoli
- 10 Surveilling Citizens: Claudia Rankine, From the First to the Second Person 169
Jeffrey Clapp

Part III States, Place and Bodies

- 11 Castrating Blackness: Surveillance, Profiling and Management in the Canadian Context 187
Sam Teclé, Tapo Chimbanga, Francesca D’Amico and Yafet Tewelde
- 12 Sousveillance as a Tool in US Civic Polity 211
Mary Ryan

13 Medical Surveillance and Bodily Privacy: Secret Selves and Graph Diaspora	229
Susan Flynn
Erratum to: Surveilling Citizens: Claudia Rankine, From the First to the Second Person	E1
Jeffrey Clapp
Spaces of Surveillance: States and Selves Afterword	245
Index	261

Spaces of Surveillance

States and Selves

Flynn, S.; Mackay, A. (Eds.)

2017, XII, 278 p. 16 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-49084-7