

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	The Research Study	5
1.2	The Structure of the Book	6
2	Discourse and Policy	11
2.1	What Is Discourse?	12
2.2	How Discourse Works: Discourse and Ideology	13
2.3	Different Schools of Thought in Studies of Discourse	14
2.4	Discourse and Policy	15
2.5	Discourse Analysis	18
2.5.1	The Role of the Researcher in Discourse Analysis	20
2.6	Summary	21
3	Equity, Schooling and Wellbeing	23
3.1	Equality of What?	24
3.2	Liberal Ideologies in Education	25
3.2.1	Classical Liberalism	25
3.2.2	Welfare Liberalism	26
3.2.3	Neo-liberalism	26
3.2.4	Ideologies of Welfare Liberalism and Neo-liberalism – Summary	28
3.3	International Influences on Policy	28
3.4	The Multiple Purposes of Schooling	30
3.5	Equality of What? The Capability Approach	31
3.6	Summary	33
4	Conceptualising Wellbeing	35
4.1	Wellbeing – An Ill-Defined Term	35
4.2	Identifying Discourses of Wellbeing Used in Education	37
4.3	Discursive Theme 1: Physical Health Promotion	39
4.4	Discursive Theme 2: Psychological Discourses of Social and Emotional Literacy	42

4.5	Discursive Theme 3: Discourse of Care.....	46
4.6	Discursive Theme 4: Philosophical Discourse of Flourishing	49
4.6.1	Aristotle's Notion of Happiness	49
4.6.2	Contemporary Understandings of Flourishing	51
4.7	Discursive Theme 5: The Emergent Theme of Sustainability.....	54
4.8	Summary.....	56
5	Conceptualising Relationships Between Learning and Wellbeing	57
5.1	Introduction.....	57
5.2	Fielding's Typology of Schooling	58
5.3	Using Fielding's Typology to Examine the Discursive Relationships Between Learning and Wellbeing	61
5.3.1	Wellbeing for Learning in the High Performance Learning Organisation	61
5.3.2	Learning for Wellbeing in the Person Centred Learning Organisation	64
5.4	Using Fielding's Typology in Discourse Analysis.....	67
5.5	Summary.....	68
6	Discourses of Wellbeing in Scottish Policy	69
6.1	Introduction.....	69
6.2	Health and Wellbeing in Curriculum for Excellence	70
6.3	Use of Language in the Policy Texts	72
6.4	The Discursive Representation of Wellbeing in Scottish Policy ...	74
6.4.1	Individualised Discourses of Wellbeing in Policy	74
6.4.2	Discourse of Wellbeing as Care in the Interagency Policies	77
6.4.3	Links Between Discourse of Care and the Discourse of Social and Emotional Literacy	80
6.4.4	The Quieter Themes – Sustainability and Flourishing	82
6.5	Conclusions.....	83
6.6	Summary.....	84
7	Interactions Between Wellbeing and Other Purposes of Schooling in Scottish Policy	85
7.1	The Purpose of the Scottish Curriculum – The 'Four Capacities'	86
7.2	Economic Strategy	87
7.3	Discursive Links Between Wellbeing and Learning	88
7.3.1	Wellbeing Serving Learning	89
7.3.2	Learning for Wellbeing.....	92
7.4	Summary.....	97
8	The Discursive Gap: Interpretation of Policy by Professionals.....	99
8.1	The Study Participants	100
8.2	Evidence of Patterns in the Data.....	101

8.3	Findings from the Interviews	102
8.3.1	Naturalisation of Policy Discourses	103
8.3.2	Wellbeing as a Prerequisite of Learning	104
8.3.3	Conflating Learning with Wellbeing.....	106
8.3.4	Health and Wellbeing as a Solution to Other Problems...	107
8.3.5	Tensions Between Learning and Health and Wellbeing ..	109
8.3.6	Alternatives to Policy Discourses- Wellbeing as Flourishing	110
8.3.7	Learning for Flourishing	112
8.4	Summary.....	117
9	Towards a More Comprehensive Understanding of Wellbeing and Equity in Education	119
9.1	Problematizing Wellbeing Discourses in Schools	120
9.2	Wellbeing, Equity and Education – Towards a More Comprehensive Understanding Through the Capability Approach	122
9.3	A Final Note	127
10	Appendix – Research Methods	129
10.1	Data Collection	130
10.1.1	Identification of Policy Texts.....	130
10.1.2	Sampling	131
10.1.3	The Sample	132
10.1.4	Interviews	133
10.2	Using Critical Discourse Analysis.....	134
	References.....	137

Wellbeing, Equity and Education
A Critical Analysis of Policy Discourses of Wellbeing in Schools

Spratt, J.

2017, XI, 147 p. 10 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-50064-5