

CONTENTS

1	In the Aftermath of Gezi: Introduction	1
	Oscar Hemer and Hans-Åke Persson
2	What Emerged in the Gezi Park Occupation in Istanbul?	17
	Asu Aksoy
3	The Politics of Protest	35
	Anita Sengupta
4	Violent Communication and the Tyranny of the Majority	55
	Ronald Stade
5	Alone in the City: Gezi as a Moment of Transgression	65
	Spyros Sofos
6	At the Intersection of Competing Modernizations: Gezi as a Litmus Test for the Public Sphere	87
	Hikmet Kırık
7	It is Too Dangerous to be an Individual in Turkey	109
	Jakob Lindgaard

8	Gezi in the Center and Periphery the Protests as Communicated by the Turkish Media	133
	Erliza López Pedersen and Marco Zoppi
9	The Gezi Movement Under a Connective Action Framework: Enhancing New Forms of Citizenship via Social Media	161
	Stavroula Chrona and Cristiano Bee
10	Activist Citizenship and the Dramaturgy of Social Change	187
	Thomas Tufte
11	Epilogue: #Occupygezi Movement and Right to the City	201
	Ayhan Kaya
	Index	217

In the Aftermath of Gezi
From Social Movement to Social Change?
Hemer, O.; Persson, H.-Å. (Eds.)
2017, XII, 219 p. 1 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-51852-7