

Contents

- 1 A Brief History of Marketing—65-Years of Journey from 1948 to 2013 1
 - 1.1 Some Considerations on the Current Role of Marketing. 1
 - 1.2 A Brief History of the Concept of Marketing. 3
 - 1.2.1 Some Elements Highlighting the Evolution of Marketing. 4
 - 1.3 Why Is Marketing Under Investigation Today? 7
 - 1.3.1 Gaps and Schisms in the Concept of Marketing Reported in Literature 7
 - 1.3.2 Seven Situations that Have Weakened the Validity of the Proposals of Marketing. 10
 - References. 14
- 2 Strategic Action: Four Elements for Increasing the Effectiveness of Marketing Actions 17
 - 2.1 Awareness of the Value of the Offer and Competitiveness. 17
 - 2.1.1 Awareness of the Value of the Offer. 18
 - 2.1.2 The Concepts of Rolling Competitive Advantage and Rolling Competitive Strategy 19
 - 2.2 The Four Steps from the Purchase to Customer Loyalty. 19
 - 2.2.1 Purchase 19
 - 2.2.2 Repurchase 25
 - 2.2.3 Retention. 31
 - 2.2.4 Customer Loyalty 35
 - 2.3 The Analysis of Customer Performance 44
 - 2.3.1 Analysis of the Performance on the Customer 44
 - 2.3.2 Analysis of the Performance by the Customer 49

| | | |
|----------|--|-----------|
| 2.4 | Four Ways of Developing Customer Loyalty | 53 |
| 2.4.1 | Loyalty and Enchantment | 53 |
| 2.4.2 | Customer Penetration | 54 |
| 2.4.3 | Clusterization and Customerization | 55 |
| 2.4.4 | Target Cluster Penetration | 55 |
| | References. | 56 |
| 3 | TES Marketing | 63 |
| 3.1 | The Main Constituents of TES Marketing | 63 |
| 3.2 | Step by Step to the Extra Step: The Operative Approach of TES Marketing. | 66 |
| 3.3 | Involvement as the Essence of TES Marketing. | 71 |
| 3.3.1 | The “Information—Relationship” Matrix | 73 |
| | References. | 79 |
| 4 | The TES Marketing Mix | 83 |
| 4.1 | The Product as the Result of Co-design | 84 |
| 4.1.1 | Market Research as a Forerunner of Co-design. | 85 |
| 4.1.2 | Co-design: Definition and First Theoretical Assumptions | 86 |
| 4.1.3 | The GIFT Theory as the Basis for Co-design Construction | 88 |
| 4.1.4 | The Case of Nissan IDx | 90 |
| 4.2 | Price as Value | 91 |
| 4.2.1 | Introduction to the Value | 91 |
| 4.2.2 | Value According to TES Marketing | 93 |
| 4.2.3 | The Case of Bossong s.p.a. | 98 |
| 4.3 | Advertising as Cross-cultural Communication | 99 |
| 4.3.1 | The Manifestations of Culture. | 100 |
| 4.3.2 | Communication as the Lever of Cross-cultural Marketing | 101 |
| 4.3.3 | Culturally Customised Communication | 102 |
| 4.3.4 | Cross-culturally Customised Communication | 103 |
| 4.3.5 | Some Cases of Culturally and Cross-culturally Customised Communication | 105 |
| 4.3.6 | The Extra Step in Cross-cultural Communication | 109 |
| 4.4 | The Distribution Policy as the New Attention to Retail | 110 |
| 4.4.1 | What Is Changing in the Relationship Between Industry and Distribution?. | 110 |
| 4.4.2 | An Example of Display Space in the Pasta Sector | 112 |
| 4.4.3 | The Distribution Policy in TES. | 112 |
| 4.4.4 | E-Commerce and E-Tailing. | 115 |

4.5 A Pioneer of TES Marketing in the Textile Sector:
Angelo “Jack” Zaninoni of Jack Set s.p.a. 118

4.6 Conclusions 120

References. 122

Marketing and Customer Loyalty

The Extra Step Approach

Cavallone, M.

2017, XI, 126 p. 22 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-51990-6