

Contents

Part I International Trade: Perspectives on Politics and Place

- 1 Protecting Geographical-Origin-Brands Abroad: The Geneva Act of the Lisbon Agreement 3
Matthijs Geuze
- 2 The Geneva Act of the Lisbon Agreement: Controversial Negotiations and Controversial Results 15
Daniel J. Gervais and Matthew Slider
- 3 The Global Struggle Between Europe and United States Over Geographical Indications in South Korea and in the TPP Economies 47
Bernard O'Connor and Giulia de Bosio
- 4 The Aroma of Opportunity: The Potential of Wine Geographical Indications in the Australia-India Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement 81
Susanne Taylor and Madeline Taylor

Part II Old and New World Development Perspectives

- 5 Mitigating 'One-Size-Fits-All' Approaches to Australian Agriculture: Is There a Case to Be Made for Geographical Indications? 111
Jen Cleary and William van Caenegem
- 6 Protecting Appellations of Origin: One Hundred Years of Efforts and Debates. 147
Genevieve Teil

7	From Geographical Indications to Collective Place Branding in France and Morocco.	173
	Mechthild Donner, Fatiha Fort and Sietze Vellema
8	GI Blues: Geographical Indications and Wine in New Zealand	197
	John Overton and Warwick E. Murray
9	Do Geographical Indications for Handicrafts Deserve a Special Regime? Insights from Worldwide Law and Practice.	221
	Delphine Marie-Vivien
10	Old World Case Study: The Role of Protected Geographical Indications to Foster Rural Development Dynamics: The Case of Sorana Bean PGI.	253
	Giovanni Belletti, Andrea Marescotti and Alessandro Brazzini
11	New World Case Study: King Island—Living the Place Brand.	277
	Jennifer Thorn

The Importance of Place: Geographical Indications as a Tool for Local and Regional Development

van Caenegem, W.; Cleary, J. (Eds.)

2017, XII, 287 p. 7 illus., 6 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-53072-7