

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Definition of FinTech and Description of the FinTech Industry	5
2.1	Definition of FinTech	5
2.2	Segments of the FinTech Industry	6
3	Methodology	11
4	The FinTech Market in Germany	13
4.1	Current Market Environment	13
4.2	General Market Trends	15
4.3	Crowdfunding	18
4.4	Donation and Reward-Based Crowdfunding	19
4.5	Crowdinvesting	22
4.6	Crowdlending	28
4.7	Credit and Factoring	31
4.8	Social Trading	32
4.9	Robo-Advice	35
4.10	Personal Financial Management	37
4.11	Investment and Banking	38
4.12	Payments	40
4.13	Insurance	42
4.14	Global Player	44
4.15	FinTech Activities of German Banks	45
5	International Position of the German FinTech Market	47
5.1	Donation and Reward-Based Crowdfunding	48
5.2	Crowdinvesting	50
5.3	Crowdlending	51
5.4	Robo-Advice	52
5.5	Alternative Payment Methods	53

6	Forecasts for the FinTech Market in Germany	55
6.1	Methodology	55
6.2	Potential Addressable Markets	56
6.2.1	Donation and Reward-Based Crowdfunding	56
6.2.2	Crowdinvesting	58
6.2.3	Crowdlending and Other Types of Credit	59
6.2.4	Factoring	60
6.2.5	Social Trading, Robo-Advice, and Investment and Banking	60
6.2.6	Personal Financial Management	61
6.2.7	Payments	61
6.2.8	Statistical Adjustments	62
6.3	Potential Market Penetration of FinTech Businesses	63
6.4	Forecast	64
6.4.1	Donation and Reward-Based Crowdfunding	66
6.4.2	Crowdinvesting	67
6.4.3	Crowdlending and Other Loans	70
6.4.4	Factoring	74
6.4.5	Social Trading, Robo-Advice, and Investment and Banking	76
6.4.6	Personal Financial Management	79
6.4.7	Payments	80
7	Academic Research	85
7.1	Donation and Reward-Based Crowdfunding	85
7.2	Crowdinvesting	87
7.3	Crowdlending	91
7.4	Social Trading	95
8	Summary	97
	Appendix: List of FinTechs	101
	References	113

FinTech in Germany

Dorleitner, G.; Hornuf, L.; Schmitt, M.; Weber, M.

2017, XIII, 121 p. 44 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-54665-0