

CONTENTS

Introduction Gábor Klaniczay and Éva Pócs	1
The Social Background of Witchcraft Accusations in Early Modern Debrecen and Bihar County Ildikó Sz. Kristóf	13
Witchcraft, Greed and Revenge: The Prosecutor Activity of György Igyártó and the Witch Trials of Kolozsvár in the 1580s László Pakó	91
Healers in Hungarian Witch Trials Gábor Klaniczay	111
Divinatio Diabolica and Superstitious Medicine: Healers, Seers and Diviners in the Changing Discourse of Witchcraft in Early Modern Nagybánya Judit Kis-Halas	159
Shamanism or Witchcraft? The Táltos Before the Tribunals Éva Pócs	221

The Decriminalization of Magic and the Fight Against Superstition in Hungary and Transylvania, 1740–1848 Pèter Tóth G.	291
Demonology and Catholic Enlightenment in Eighteenth-Century Hungary Dániel Bárh	319
Talking Through Witchcraft—on the Bewitchment Discourse of a Village Community Ágnes Hesz	349
Index	395

Witchcraft and Demonology in Hungary and Transylvania

Klaniczay, G.; Pócs, É. (Eds.)

2017, XIV, 412 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-54755-8