

Contents

1	Why Do We Need Intellectual Property Rules?	1
1.1	Innovating Amidst Institutional Uncertainty	2
1.2	Conventional IP Theory Does Not Explain IP Management	7
1.3	Establishing Priority over the Creative Work or Discovery	12
1.4	The Malleable Nature of the IP System	18
1.5	Factors Influencing the Selection of IP Instruments	22
2	Exercising Market Power Through IP	27
2.1	The Elusive Market Power of IP Monopolies	27
2.2	Choosing Between Patents and Trade Secrets	33
2.3	Building Large IP Portfolios	35
2.4	Pioneering as IP Strategy	37
2.5	Defensive Publishing	38
2.6	Patent Donation	40
2.7	Non-competition Clauses	42
3	Sharing IP Strategy: Commercialization	45
3.1	Drawbacks of Imposing IP's Market Power	45
3.2	Contractual Flexibility in Licensing and Selling Patents	48
3.3	Forms of Patent Trading: Brokerage and Pooling	50
3.4	Patent Exchange Online Platforms	54
3.5	Patent Trading as IP Management Strategy	58
4	Offensive IP Strategy: Litigation	61
4.1	Patent Litigation as an Investment Asset	62
4.2	Award Value and Litigation Costs	65
4.3	Patent Litigation Risk	69
4.4	Choosing the Litigation Forum	72
4.5	Non-practicing Entities: The Two Sides of Offensive Patent Aggregation	75
4.6	Avoiding Litigation Through Defensive Patent Aggregation	79

5	Hiding IP Strategy: Trading Secrets	83
5.1	Secrecy as an Optimal IP Strategy.	83
5.2	Secrecy as a Sub-optimal Strategy.	86
5.3	Knowing and Not Knowing the Unknown.	86
5.4	The Cost for SMIE's of Using Formal IP: A Survey in Latin America	87
6	The Impact of IP Risk in the Development of IP Markets	97
6.1	What Is IP Risk and Why Does It Matter?	98
6.2	IP as Lottery Tickets	100
6.3	The Challenge of Valuing IP	102
6.4	IP Monetization: The Alchemy of Transforming Risk into Cash	106
6.5	Uninsurable IP Risk.	108
7	Government Strategies Towards IP Management	111
7.1	The Institutional Complexity of Technology Transfer.	112
7.2	Changing the Incentives Structure for Technology Transfer.	115
7.3	Business Incubation and IP Management	119
7.4	Government Support of IP Markets.	124
7.5	Technology Transfer in Latin America: The Current Debate	127
8	Conclusions	133
8.1	Cognitive Perceptions Drive IP Management	135
8.2	Governments Need to Creatively Address Awareness.	136
8.3	In Closing.	137
	Bibliography	141

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-54905-7>

Innovation, Startups and Intellectual Property
Management
Strategies and Evidence from Latin America and other Regions

De Leon, I.; Fernandez Donoso, J.

2017, XXXI, 152 p. 13 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-54905-7