

CONTENTS

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 1 | Introduction  | 1   |
| 2 | Displacement in Rose Tremain's First Novel:Sadler's Birthday                                     | 17  |
| 3 | Female Itineraries: The Road to Empowermentin Letter to Sister Benedicta and The Cupboard | 35  |
| 4 | Gender Provinces: Realism and Feminismin The Swimming Pool Season                                | 61  |
| 5 | Seventeenth-Century Panorama: The Functionof History in Restoration                              | 81  |
| 6 | Mindscapes as Landscapes: Journeys of the Selfin Sacred Country and The Way I Found Her   | 101 |
| 7 | Historical 'Terrains': Music and Silenceand The Colour                                    | 133 |
| 8 | Foreign Prospects and Local Entrenchments:Immigration in The Road Home and Trespass       | 161 |

|    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 9  | A Picaresque Journey: Merivel: A Man of His Time | 187 |
| 10 | Conclusion: The Gustav Sonata                    | 201 |
|    | Appendix  | 211 |
|    | Bibliography  | 215 |
|    | Index   | 235 |

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-57128-7>

Rose Tremain

A Critical Introduction

Emilie, W.

2017, IX, 240 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-57128-7