

Contents

1	The Framing of African Immigrants as the Problematic Aliens	1
2	Migration Context and Contestations	13
3	Global Contexts, African Immigrants, Traders and the Johannesburg Inner City Milieu	41
4	Historical Perspectives on Migration and the Xenophobia Discourse	73
5	African Immigrant Traders in Johannesburg Inner City	97

6   African Immigrant Traders' Contribution to Johannesburg Inner City	121
7   Reinterpreting the Hierarchy and Finding New Perspectives	159
About the Author	183
Index	185

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-57143-0>

African Immigrant Traders in Inner City Johannesburg
Deconstructing the Threatening 'Other'

Moyo, I.

2017, XVII, 196 p. 2 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-57143-0