

Contents

- 1 Introduction 1
- 2 Professionalism in Surgery 5
 - 2.1 Offer Surgery for the Right Reasons 7
 - 2.2 Maintain the Trust of Patients 9
 - 2.3 Maintain the Trust of Other Staff 11
 - 2.4 Respect All Staff 13
 - 2.5 Respect Colleagues 14
 - 2.6 Support Colleagues 15
 - 2.7 Consider Emotions of Others 16
 - 2.8 Listen and Act upon Concerns 17
 - 2.9 Stick to the Core Principles 18
 - 2.10 Go with the Flow 19
 - 2.11 Swim Against the Tide 20
 - 2.12 Act More Than a Technician 21
 - 2.13 Stand Up for the Profession 22
 - 2.14 Declare Acceptable Conflict 23
 - 2.15 Stir Well Away from Unacceptable Conflict 25
 - 2.16 Gather Experience 27
 - 2.17 Seek Continuity of Care 28
 - 2.18 Don't Make Speed Your Sole Aim 29
 - 2.19 Understand Your Limitations 30
 - 2.20 Walk Before You Can Fly 31
 - 2.21 Seek and Give Feedback 32
 - 2.22 Self-Reflect 33
 - 2.23 Acknowledge Uncertainty 34
 - 2.24 Aim for Accurate Communication 35
 - 2.25 Follow Procedures 36
 - 2.26 Welcome Innovation 37
 - 2.27 Question Innovation 38
 - 2.28 Choose Implants Wisely 40

2.29	Appreciate the Limitations of Technology	42
2.30	Pass on the Craft	43
	References	44
3	Communication in Surgery	47
3.1	Basic Concepts in Communication	49
3.1.1	Introduce Self and Get to Know Others	49
3.1.2	Choose the Words and Tone	49
3.1.3	Body Language	50
3.1.4	Listen	50
3.1.5	Repeat in Different Ways	51
3.1.6	Do You Have Any Remaining Questions?	51
3.1.7	Check that Information Has Gone Across	52
3.1.8	Summarise	52
3.1.9	Pick the Cues	52
3.1.10	Empathy	53
3.1.11	Communicating Urgency	55
3.2	Shared Decision Making	56
3.3	Consent	57
3.3.1	Information to Be Communicated in Consenting	57
3.3.2	Who Obtains Consent	60
3.3.3	Who Can Provide Informed Consent	61
3.3.4	Timing of Obtaining Consent	63
	References	64
4	Organising a Surgical Theatre List	67
4.1	The Patient's Journey to Surgery	69
4.2	Listing for Surgery	72
4.3	Putting Together a Theatre List	73
4.3.1	Ensuring Good Surgical Care	73
4.3.2	Surgical List Location	74
4.3.3	Order of the Surgical List	75
4.4	Improving Theatre List Utilisation	76
4.4.1	Prompt Start	76
4.4.2	Avoiding Early Finishes	77
4.4.3	Avoiding Interruptions	77
	References	79
5	Technical Skills in Surgery	81
5.1	Planning for Surgery	83
5.2	Developing Surgical Skills	85
5.3	Get Accustomed to the Operating Theatre Environment	86
5.4	Developing Technical Skills	88
5.4.1	Model for Progression of Motor Skills Acquisition	88
5.4.2	Learning Curve	88
5.4.3	Deliberate Practise	89

5.4.4	Piecemeal Learning	90
5.4.5	Distributed Practise	91
5.4.6	Mental Practise.	91
5.4.7	Simulation	92
5.4.8	Feedback	93
5.4.9	Progress in the Levels of Participation.	93
5.4.10	Be an Active Assistant	94
5.5	Learning a Surgical Technique.	95
5.6	Getting Technically Fluent.	96
5.7	Limitations of Surgical Skills	97
	References.	98
6	Situation Awareness in Surgery	101
6.1	Levels of Situation Awareness	103
6.2	Components of Situation Awareness	105
6.3	Situation Awareness Versus Decision Making	106
6.4	Barriers to Situation Awareness	107
6.4.1	Failure of Situation Awareness in Aviation	108
6.4.2	Failure of Situation Awareness in Vehicle Driving	109
6.4.3	Failure of Situation Awareness in Surgery.	109
6.5	Improving Situation Awareness	111
6.5.1	Improve Information Gathering	111
6.5.2	Aim for Manageable Workload	111
6.5.3	Improve Memory Utilisation	112
6.5.4	Minimise the Effect of Stress on SA	113
6.6	Team Situation Awareness	114
6.7	Recognising Loss of Situation Awareness	116
	References.	118
7	Decision Making in Surgery.	121
7.1	The Spectrum of Surgical Decisions	123
7.2	Types of Decision Making	124
7.3	Effect of Experience on the Choice of Decision Model	125
7.4	Switching Between Decision Models	126
7.5	Biases in Decision Making	127
7.6	Factors Influencing Surgical Decision Making	130
7.7	Decision Making in Offering Surgery	131
7.8	Emotions and Decision Making.	134
7.9	Improving Decision Making	136
7.10	Surgeons Are Allowed to Change Their Mind.	137
	References.	138
8	Leadership in Surgery	141
8.1	Leader Versus Manager	143
8.2	Types of Leadership.	144
8.3	Leadership Matters.	145

8.4	Challenges of a Surgeon Leader	147
8.5	Desirable Leadership Behaviours	148
8.5.1	See the Big Picture	149
8.5.2	Stick to the Core Values, Share Your Followers' Values	150
8.5.3	Lead by Example	150
8.5.4	Lead Change Wisely	151
8.5.5	Welcome Alternative Voices	154
8.5.6	Follow the Rules	154
8.5.7	Consider How You Start	155
8.5.8	Consider How You End	155
8.6	Undesirable Leadership Behaviours	157
8.7	Personality and Leadership	159
8.8	Leadership Posts and Titles	160
	References	161
9	Surgical Research	165
9.1	Accepting the Need for Surgical Research	167
9.2	Defining the Aim	168
9.3	Defining the Study Groups	170
9.4	Defining the Study Population	171
9.5	Study Design	172
9.6	Defining the Intervention	176
9.7	Quality Assurance of Interventions	178
9.8	Control Groups—Sham Surgery—The Surgical Placebo	179
9.9	Sample Size Calculation	181
9.10	Follow Up	182
9.11	Surgical Waiting Lists and Research	183
9.12	Outcomes	184
9.13	Recruitment	185
9.14	Improving Success of Surgical Clinical Research	186
9.15	Putting Evidence into Practise	189
9.16	Running a Journal Club	191
	References	193
10	Surgical Audit	197
10.1	Surgical Audit Cycle	199
10.2	Surgical Audit Ladder	201
10.2.1	Surgical Logbook	201
10.2.2	Mortality and Morbidity Meetings	202
10.2.3	Systematic Audit at Local Level	203
10.2.4	Audit Databases	204
10.3	Hawthorne Effect	209
	References	210
11	Safety in Surgery	213
11.1	The Safety Problem	215
11.2	Contributors to Healthcare Safety	216

11.3	Causes of Harm	217
11.4	Latent Failures in Aviation	219
11.5	Latent Failures in Healthcare	221
11.6	Isolated Versus Sequence of Events Leading to Harm	224
11.7	Strategies for Improving Safety	225
11.8	The Iceberg of Error	226
11.9	Individual's Actions to Improve Safety	227
11.9.1	Be Risk Aware	227
11.9.2	Avoid Taking Unnecessary Risks	228
11.9.3	Identify Error Prone Situations	229
11.9.4	Check and Check Again	230
11.9.5	Use Checklists Appropriately	231
11.9.6	Recognise Critical Steps	232
11.9.7	Aim for Effective Error Reduction Measures	233
11.9.8	Aim for Standardisation	234
11.9.9	Aim for Consistency	235
11.9.10	Recognise the Impact of Minor Failures	235
11.9.11	Learn from Near Misses	236
11.9.12	Use Incident Reporting Systems Appropriately	236
11.9.13	Lead in Safety by Example	237
11.9.14	Encourage Flat Hierarchy	237
11.9.15	Aim for a No-Blame Culture	238
11.9.16	Communicate for Safety	238
11.9.17	Avoid Disruptive Behaviours	241
11.9.18	Plan to Recover from Failures	242
	References	243
12	When Things Go Wrong	247
12.1	Managing Adverse Events	249
12.2	Root Cause Analysis of an Adverse Event	250
12.3	Dealing with a Cluster of Recognised Complications	253
12.4	Stop Whilst You Investigate	256
12.5	Near Misses and No Harm Events	257
12.6	Learning from Adverse Events	258
12.7	Informing the Wider Surgical Community	259
12.8	Disclosure	260
12.8.1	Challenges of Disclosure	260
12.8.2	Delivering the Disclosure	261
12.8.3	Disclosure When Another Surgeon Is Involved	262
	References	263
13	Surgical Interviews	265
13.1	Choosing a Surgical Specialty or Sub-Specialty	267
13.2	Surgical CV	269
13.3	Surgical Portfolio	271
13.4	Surgical Interview Questions	274

13.4.1	CV—Portfolio Questions.	274
13.4.2	Surgical Clinical Scenario Questions.	275
13.4.3	Leadership/Management Questions.	277
13.4.4	Awkward Scenarios	277
13.4.5	Communication Questions.	278
13.4.6	Political Issues Questions	279
	References.	281
14	Emotions in Surgery	283
14.1	Types of Emotions	285
14.2	Emotional Intelligence.	286
14.3	Emotions and Stress.	287
14.4	Facing Complications	289
14.5	Dealing with Errors	292
14.6	Coping with the Stereotype	294
14.7	Struggles in the Workplace	296
14.8	Be Proud.	298
	References.	299
	Index.	301

Career Skills for Surgeons

Panayiotou Charalambous, C.

2017, XVI, 304 p. 50 illus., 30 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-57489-9