

Contents

|                                                                              |                                                                                                                           |            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1                                                                     | Introduction to the Volume .....                                                                                   | 1   |
|                                                                              | Richard Jessor                                                                                                            |            |
| Part I Problem Behavior Theory and the Social Context of Disadvantage |                                                                                                                           |            |
| 2                                                                     | “Making It” Among At-Risk Youth: The Roleof the Social Context .....                                          | 13  |
|                                                                              | Richard Jessor                                                                                                            |            |
| 3                                                                     | Problem Behavior Theory and Success Despite Disadvantage .....                                                     | 31  |
|                                                                              | Richard Jessor, Mark S. Turbin, and Frances M. Costa                                                                      |            |
| 4                                                                     | Social Context Protection and Risk in Adolescent Behaviorand Development .....                                | 57  |
|                                                                              | Frances M. Costa, Richard Jessor, Mark S. Turbin, Qi Dong,Hongchuan Zhang, and Changhai Wang                          |            |
| 5                                                                     | Neighborhood Variation and Successful AdolescentDevelopment .....                                             | 89  |
|                                                                              | Richard Jessor                                                                                                            |            |
| 6                                                                     | Problem Behavior Theory and Adolescent ProblemBehavior in Sub-Saharan Africa.....                             | 95  |
|                                                                              | Robert P. Ndugwa, Caroline W. Kabiru, John Cleland, Donatien Beguy,Thaddeus Egondi, Eliya M. Zulu, and Richard Jessor |            |
| 7                                                                     | Successful Adolescence in the Slums of Nairobi, Kenya.....                                                         | 117 |
|                                                                              | Caroline W. Kabiru, Donatien Beguy, Robert P. Ndugwa,Eliya M. Zulu, and Richard Jessor                                |            |
| 8                                                                     | Problem Behavior Theory and the Transition to Adulthood in the Slumsof Nairobi, Kenya .....                   | 137 |
|                                                                              | Thaddeus Egondi, Caroline Kabiru, Donatien Beguy,Kanyiva Muindi, and Richard Jessor                                   |            |

Part II Conceptual and Methodological Issues in Engaging the Social Context

|           |                                                                                                |            |
|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 9  | The Perceived Environment as Social Context.....                                        | 163 |
|           | Richard Jessor and Shirley L. Jessor                                                           |            |
| 10 | The Perceived Environment and the Psychological Situation.....                          | 183 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 11 | Engaging Subjectivity in Understanding Individual Differences .....                     | 207 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 12 | Explaining Behavior and Development in the Language of Psychology .....                 | 217 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 13 | The Perceived Environment in Personality Variation.....                                 | 227 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 14 | Continuity in Psychosocial Change from Adolescence to Young Adulthood .....             | 239 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 15 | Restoring Context and Meaning in Social Inquiry: The Reach of Qualitative Methods ..... | 261 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 16 | The Transdisciplinary Nature of Contemporary Behavioral Science .....                   | 273 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
| 17 | The Cross-National Generality of Theoretical Explanation .....                          | 277 |
|           | Richard Jessor                                                                                 |            |
|           | Index.....                                                                              | 281 |

Problem Behavior Theory and the Social Context
The Collected Works of Richard Jessor, Volume 3
Jessor, R.

2017, XI, 286 p. 32 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-57884-2