

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Comparative Theologies and Multiple Modernities	1
2	Comparative Theology, Religious Discourse, and Phenomenological Imagination	21
3	Comparative Theology of Justification and Interreligious Learning: Martin Luther and Shinran Shonin	43
4	Totaliter Aliter , God's Mission, and the Postcolonial	65
5	Barth and Relational Theology	83
6	Phenomenological Elucidation: Karl Barth and Emmanuel Levinas	105
7	Theological Audacity, Analogical Relationality, and Religions	135
8	Barth, Comparative Theology, and Multiple Modernities	159
9	Ernst Troeltsch, Historical Method, and Comparative Theology	177

10	Comparative Theology and Interreligious Solidarity Ethic: A Critical Appraisal of Weber	201
11	Religious Discourse, Power Relations, and Interreligious Illumination	229
12	Confucian Moral, Phenomenology of Saying, and Multiple Modernities	253
13	Epilogue: Comparative Theology and the Postcolonial	277
	Glossary	305
	Bibliography	309
	Index	325

Comparative Theology Among Multiple Modernities

Cultivating Phenomenological Imagination

Chung, P.S.

2017, XII, 329 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-58195-8