

CONTENTS

Part I Introduction

- 1 “... a Document of Our Times.” Magna Carta in Aotearoa
New Zealand 3
Chris Jones and Stephen Winter

Part II Remembrance

- 2 Magna Carta and Memorialization: The Perils of Historical Anniversaries 23
Lindsay Diggelmann
- 3 Myths and History: The Treaty of Waitangi as
“The Magna Charta of New Zealand” 45
David V. Williams

Part III Reception

- 4 Magna Carta and a Paradox of Authority 67
Andrew Sharp

- 5 Symbol and Myth: Magna Carta in Legal and Public Discourse About Law and Rights in New Zealand, 1840–1940 89
Jeremy Finn
- 6 The Politics of Magna Carta and the Ancient Constitution in New Zealand, 1642–c.1860 111
Geoff Kemp
- 7 The Myth of the “Māori Magna Carta” 133
Te Maire Tau and Madi Williams
- 8 Mekana Tata: Magna Carta and the Political Thought of Aperahama Taonui 153
Laura Kamau
- 9 The Utility of a Medieval Charter in New Zealand Litigation: The Case of the Magna Carta 161
Lindsay Breach
- 10 Magna Carta and the Righteous Underdog in Modern Popular Culture 181
Anna Milne-Tavendale

Part IV Reflection

- 11 Magna Carta’s Promise: Strengthening the Declaration of Rights-Inconsistency 207
Stephen Winter
- 12 Mana and Magna Carta: Locating New Legacies for a Medieval Charter in Post-colonial Aotearoa New Zealand 229
Chris Jones

Part V Conclusion

13 Tear it up? Challenging the Charter	255
Stephen Winter and Chris Jones
Appendix: Taken out of Context: Early Copies of Magna Carta in Aotearoa New Zealand	265
Index	277

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-58438-6>

Magna Carta and New Zealand
History, Politics and Law in Aotearoa
Winter, S.; Jones, C. (Eds.)
2017, XIII, 288 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-58438-6