

CONTENTS

Part I Rethinking the Field

Film Novelization Constantine Verevis	3
What Can Adaptation Studies Learn from Fan Studies? Laurence Raw	21
The Task of the Adaptation Critic Glenn Jellenik	37
Mind the Gaps Thomas Leitch	53
Continuation, Adaptation Studies, and the Never-Finished Text R. Barton Palmer	73
Unfilmable Books Kamilla Elliott	101
A Dickensian Feast: Visual Culture and Television Aesthetics Sarah Cardwell	119

Star Adaptations: Queen Biopics of the 1930s Deborah Cartmell	139
---	-----

Part II New Directions, Case Histories

Between a Sequel and a Market Crash: Wall Street: Money Never Sleeps Jack Boozer	159
---	-----

Dissolving Media Boundaries: The Interaction of Literature, Film, and Television in Tender Is the Night (1985) Christine Geraghty	175
--	-----

Fargos Julie Grossman	193
---------------------------------	-----

Alfred in Wonderland: Hitchcock Through the Looking-Glass Mark Osteen	213
---	-----

Japanese Avant-garde and the Moga ("Modern Girl") Homer B. Pettey	235
--	-----

The Worlds of Downton Abbey Nancy M. West	255
--	-----

Index	271
--------------	-----

Adaptation in Visual Culture

Images, Texts, and Their Multiple Worlds

Grossman, J.; Palmer, R.B. (Eds.)

2017, XVI, 285 p. 17 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-58579-6