

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Spanish Crossroads—Affect and Belonging in the Democratic Era	1
2	No Place Like Home: Gabi Martínez's Ático (Top-Floor Apartment) and Javier Calvo's "Una Belleza Rusa" (A Russian Beauty)	27
3	History and Trauma at the Crossroads: Guillermo del Toro's El laberinto del fauno (Pan's Labyrinth) and Isabel Coixet's The Secret Life of Words	61
4	Synthetic Skins: Mercedes Cebrián's La nueva taxidermia (The New Taxidermy) and Pedro Almodóvar's La piel que habito (The Skin I Live in)	101
5	Unraveling Cultures: Alejandro González Iñárritu's Beautiful and Najat El Hachmi's L'últim patriarca (The Last Patriarch)	145
6	Unsheltered: Pablo Berger's Blancanieves (Snow White) and Jesús Carrasco's Intemperie (Out in the Open)	181

Conclusion: Belonging—The Ecology of the Self	213
Bibliography	219
Index	221

Affect and Belonging in Contemporary Spanish Fiction and Film

Crossroads Visions

Barker, J.

2017, XI, 226 p. 15 illus., 12 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-57964-1