

CONTENTS

1	William Shakespeare and Mikhail Bakhtin: Filming Dialogically	1
2	Chronotopes and Categories of Shakespeare-Inflected Films	27
3	Chronotopic Images and Cinematic Dialogism with Shakespeare	57
4	Kurosawa, Kozintsev, Kaurismäki, and Almereyda: Hamlet and Transnational Dialogism	93
5	Withnail and I : The Ghost of Shakespeare	123
6	Bakhtinian Polyphony in Godard's King Lear	141
7	Shakespeare Shaping in Dogme95 Films, and Bakhtin's Theory of Tragedy	163
8	Scotland, PA : Parody, Nostalgia, Irony, and Menippean Satire	187

9	Romeo and Juliet , Polyglossia, and the Romantic Politics of Deepa Mehta's Water	209
10	Unfinalizability and Cinematic Shakespeare	227
	Works Cited	235
	Index	251

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-59742-3>

Shakespeare, Bakhtin, and Film

A Dialogic Lens

Harrison, K.

2017, IX, 263 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-59742-3