

CONTENTS

Introduction: Interrogating the Production, Circulation and Reception of ‘Difference’ in Globalized Cultures	1
Belén Martín-Lucas and Andrea Ruthven

Part I Reading Methodologies

Subversive Translation and Lexical Empathy: Pedagogies of Cortesía and Transnational Multilingual Poetics	13
Merlinda Bobis

The Production and Productivity of Humanitarian Fiction: Postcolonial Shame and Neocolonial Crises	37
David Callahan

Still Devouring Frida Kahlo: Psychobiography versus Postcolonial and Disability Readings	57
Zoë Brigley Thompson

The World Republic of Readers	81
James Procter

Part II Counternarratives of the Metropolis

- Success and the City: Working in the World's Capital in
Monica Ali's *Brick Lane 97

Darragh Patrick Hall

- Borderless (Alien) Nations: Disposable Bodies and
Biopolitical Effacement in Min Sook Lee's Docu-Poem 117

Libe García Zarranz

- Public Art in the Production of a Global City:
Jamie Hilder's Clashing Versions of Vancouver 133

John Havelde

- A Nation Goes Adrift: Subaltern Inter-Identity in
José Saramago's *The Stone Raft 157

Maria Sofia Pimentel Biscaia

Part III Disruptive Genders

- 'Something Terrible Happened': Spectacles of Gendered
Violence and Nadine Gordimer's *The House Gun 185

Sorcha Gunne

- Alternative Modernities and Othered Masculinities in
Mira Nair's *The Namesake 203

E. Guillermo Iglesias Díaz

- (Un)Veiling Women's Bodies: Transnational Feminisms in
Emer Martin's *Baby Zero 223

Aida Rosende-Pérez

- Index 245

Narratives of Difference in Globalized Cultures

Reading Transnational Cultural Commodities

Martín-Lucas, B.; Ruthven, A. (Eds.)

2017, XVI, 251 p. 15 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-62132-6