

CONTENTS

- 1 Introduction: The Mexican Crack Writers—Toward a New Literary Aesthetics 1
Héctor Jaimes

Part I History

- 2 The Crack: Generational Strategies in Mexico at the Turn of the Century 13
Tomás Regalado López
- 3 The Crack Movement's Literary Cartography (1996–2016) 39
Ramón Alvarado Ruiz

Part II Criticism

- 4 Narrative Techniques in Jorge Volpi's Fictions 57
Sara Calderón
- 5 Science, Art, and Magic: Totalization and Totalitarianism in Jorge Volpi's In Search of Klingsor 73
Aníbal González

6	Soldiers and Shadows: The Post-national Militant in Ignacio Padilla's Amphitryon and El daño no es de ayer Anne Stachura	87
7	Living in Las Rémoras. An Introduction to Eloy Urroz's Fiction Tomás Regalado López	103
8	Toward a Philosophy of Love: Pedro Ángel Palou's Qliphoth and La profundidad de la piel Héctor Jaimes	127
9	El dinero del diablo by Pedro Ángel Palou: A New Moral Dialogue Eugenia Helena Houvenaghel	147
10	Ricardo Chávez Castañeda: The Limits of Fiction Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado	161
	Crack Manifesto	177
	Crack Postmanifesto (1996–2016)	191
	Author Index	205
	Subject Index	209

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-62715-1>

The Mexican Crack Writers

History and Criticism

Jaimes, H. (Ed.)

2017, XI, 210 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-62715-1