

CONTENTS

Part I From Revolution to Statehood, 1919–27

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 1 | Introduction: The Politics of Independent Ireland | 3 |
| 2 | ‘Substance Not Shadows’: Sinn Féin and the Anglo-Irish Treaty | 21 |
| 3 | ‘The Deplorable Conflict’: Free State Politics and the Civil War | 53 |
| 4 | Aspirations and Realities: Cumann na nGaedheal in Government, 1923–1926 | 101 |

Part II A Stable Democracy, 1927–37

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 5 | A Two-Party System? Free State Politics in 1927 | 151 |
| 6 | ‘Holding the Scales Even’: Cumann na nGaedheal’s Final Years in Power | 193 |
| 7 | Political Realignment: Ireland in the 1930s—A Stable Democracy? | 235 |

8 Fine Gael and Fianna Fáil: Common Origins, Separate Identities?	287
Bibliography	299
Index	319

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-63584-2>

Party Politics in a New Democracy

The Irish Free State, 1922-37

Farrell, M.

2017, XIV, 332 p. 20 illus., 3 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-63584-2