

Contents

Part I Introduction

- | | | |
|----------|---|----------|
| 1 | Three Theses | 3 |
| 2 | Comparable Interpretations of Secularization | 9 |

Part II A New Secularization Thesis

- | | | |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 3 | Intrinsic Goals and Sphere-Immanent Rationalities | 21 |
| 4 | Religion and the Absolute | 31 |
| 5 | Moral and Metaphysical Norms | 45 |
| 6 | Authenticity in Ancient China, Rome, the Renaissance, and Marx | 55 |
| 7 | Montaigne's Authenticity | 65 |

8	Mortality and Montaignean Authenticity	75
9	A Naturalistic Proof of the Validity of the Authenticity Command	81
10	Three Comments on the Proof	93
11	Thesis and Sub-theses	107
 Part III Objections
12	Religion Cannot Be Perfected, Least of All by Authenticity	113
13	Claims on the Absolute Must Be Infallible	121
14	Weberian Rationalization Is a Hegelian Red Herring	129
15	Kierkegaard—But not Rational Metaphysics—Can Relate Us to the Absolute	139
16	Secular Societies Can Do Without Anything Absolute	151
17	Authenticity Is Asocial	163
18	Secularization Is a Western Affair	173
 Part IV Epilog: Liberals' Absolute
19	The Ambivalence of Secularization and of Nature	187
20	Rorty and the Enlightened Secular Faith	193
References		205
Index		215

Secularization

An Essay in Normative Metaphysics

Steinvorth, U.

2017, VI, 223 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-63870-6