

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Heidegger and Theology after the Black Notebooks	1
	Jayne Svenungsson
2	Religion in the Black Notebooks: Overview and Analysis	23
	Judith Wolfe
3	In the Spirit of Paul: Thinking the Hebraic Inheritance (Heidegger, Bultmann, Jonas)	49
	Hans Ruin
4	Why Heidegger Didn't Like Catholic Theology: The Case of Romano Guardini	77
	George Pattison
5	Anarchist Singularities or Proprietorial Resentments? on the Christian Problem in Heidegger's Notebooks of the 1930s	99
	Ward Blanton
6	Monotheism as a Metapolitical Problem: Heidegger's War Against Jewish Christian Monotheism	131
	Christoph Schmidt

7	Love Strong as Death: Jews Against Heidegger (On the Issue of Finitude) Agata Bielik-Robson	159
8	Apocalypse and the History of Being Marcia Sá Cavalcante Schuback	191
9	Gottwesen and the De-Divinization of the Last God: Heidegger's Meditation on the Strange and Incalculable Elliot R. Wolfson	211
10	Confessions and Considerations: Heidegger's Early Black Notebooks and His Lecture on Augustine's Theory of Time Marius Timmann Mjaaland	257
11	The Irritability of Being: Martin Heidegger, Hans Driesch and the Future of Theology Mårten Björk	277
	Index	315

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-64926-9>

Heidegger's Black Notebooks and the Future of Theology

Björk, M.; Svenungsson, J. (Eds.)

2017, XII, 322 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-64926-9