

CONTENTS

Part I Definition of the Method

1	Film and Philosophy	3
1.1	The Relationship Between Film and Philosophy	3
1.2	Possible Approaches to Film Philosophy	6
1.3	Film as Philosophy	12
1.4	Towards a New Methodological Approach to FaP	22
	References	33
2	Phenomenology of Film	37
2.1	Phenomenology as the Presupposition of Hermeneutics	37
2.2	Embodiment, Intentionality and the Synthetic and Synaesthetic Process	40
2.3	Film Experience as (Re)perception	42
2.4	The Film World Through Phenomenology and Hermeneutics	56
	References	61
3	Film Worlds	65
3.1	Films as Film Worlds	65
3.2	The Film World as Experienceable Expression and Analysable Object	71

3.3	Film Worlds Making	73
3.4	The Film World as Hermeneutic Horizon	75
	References	81
4	Hermeneutics of Film	85
4.1	Merleau-Ponty's Phenomenology and Ricœur's Hermeneutics	85
4.2	Film Interpretation	88
4.3	Ricœurian Hermeneutics of Film	90
4.4	Hermeneutic Methodologies in Film	95
	References	101
5	Film Hermeneutic Method	105
5.1	Hermeneutics and Method	105
5.2	Ricœur's Symbolic Interpretation and the Conflict of Interpretations	107
5.3	Dialectic of Understanding and Explanation	112
5.4	Schematizing Ricœur's Hermeneutic Method	115
5.5	Towards a Hermeneutic Method for Film Interpretation	119
5.6	Structure and Phases of the Method	124
5.7	Structure of the Method	130
	References	135
 Part II Application of the Method
6	Case Studies	141
6.1	Case Study Research	141
6.2	Case Studies and Film Worlds	145
	References	148
7	Manhattan: The Film World as Identity	149
7.1	Phase 1: Naïve Understanding	150
7.2	Phase 2: From Explanation to In-Depth Understanding	162
7.3	Phase 3: Critical Understanding and Appropriation	182
	References	194

8	The King of Comedy: The Film World as Representation	201
8.1	Phase 1: Naïve Understanding	202
8.2	Phase 2: From Explanation to in-Depth Understanding	224
8.3	Phase 3: Critical Understanding and Appropriation	246
	References	252
9	Pretty Woman: The Film World as Dream	257
9.1	Phase 1: Naïve Understanding	258
9.2	Phase 2: From Explanation to In-Depth Understanding	271
9.3	Phase 3: Critical Understanding and Appropriation	292
	References	298
	Conclusion	303
	References	309
	Index	311

Hermeneutics of the Film World
A Ricœurian Method for Film Interpretation
Baracco, A.
2017, XXVII, 321 p. 57 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-65399-0