

CONTENTS

- 1 Time in the Making: Why All the Fuss About Time?
On Time, the Unknown, and Fascination 1
Sibylle Baumbach, Lena Henningsen and Klaus Oschema
- Part I Past Futures
- 2 The Old Made New: Medieval Repurposing of Prophecies 23
Anke Holdenried
- 3 ‘Wunschzeit’ Jerusalem: Rethinking the Distinction
Between Time and Space in Medieval Utopias 43
Christian Hoffarth
- 4 Living on the Edge of Time: Temporal Patterns and Irregularities in Byzantine Historical Apocalypses 71
András Kraft
- 5 Unknown or Uncertain? Astrologers, the Church, and the Future in the Late Middle Ages 93
Klaus Oschema

- 6 'From the Unknown to the Known and Backwards:'
Representing and Presenting Remote Time in Nineteenth-Century Palaeontology 115
Marco Tamborini

Part II Unknown Presents

- 7 Introducing Time to Ethnographic Displays: Narrative
Strategies of Revealing the Unknown in German
Ethnological Museums 143
Katja Wehde
- 8 "God's Time Is the Best:" The Fascination with Unknown Time in Urban Transport in Lagos 167
Daniel E. Agbiboa
- 9 Perpetual Wanderers—Timeless Heroes: Gypsies in European Musical Culture 189
Anna G. Piotrowska
- 10 The Present: An 'Unknown Time' in the German
Kaiserreich around 1900 211
Caroline Rothauge

Part III Future Pasts

- 11 The Time-Image and the Unknown in Wong Kar-wai's
Film Art 233
Dorothee Xiaolong Hou and Sheldon H. Lu
- 12 Suspense in the Cinema: Knowledge and Time 251
Hauke Lehmann

| | | |
|--------------|--|------------|
| 13 | Futurology, Allegory, Time Travel: What Makes Science Fiction Fascinating | 273 |
| | Kai Wiegandt | |
| Index | | 293 |

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-66437-8>

The Fascination with Unknown Time

Baumbach, S.; Henningsen, L.; Oschema, K. (Eds.)

2017, XXI, 300 p. 25 illus., 22 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-66437-8